Why is Asterix called Asterix? In Latin, "Asterix" can be translated as "King of the stars" (aster meaning star and rix meaning king). Who is the girl in the Asterix? Geriatrix. She's never been officially named in the comics, but in Parc Asterix, the amusement park based on the series, she is called Taillefine, which is French for "slim figure." By far the most refined Gallic woman in the village, she is married to Geriatrix, the oldest resident.

What is Asterix afraid of? Cheif Vitalstatistix from the Asterix comics has only one mortal fear — That the sky will fall on his head tomorrow. It is this fear that he has been living with, and since tomorrow never comes, he and the rest of the famous gauls are all safe (except from the dreadful singing of Cacafonix).

What gender is the name Asterix? In many MUDs and MOOs, as well as "male", "female", and other more esoteric genders, there is a gender called "splat", which uses an asterisk to replace the letters that differ in standard English gender pronouns.
