Who said "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord"? "And Joshua said unto all the people [of Israel], ... choose you this day whom ye will serve; ... but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord" (Josh. 24:2, 15). As in the days of Joshua, so it is with us today.

What does "as for me and my house we will serve the Lord" mean? Within this verse, Joshua is making a declaration about what matters most to him and his household. He is stating clearly and without any doubt who he will serve. It didn't matter to him what any other Israelite and their families decided to do he was establishing what was right for his house.

Where in the Bible does it say as for me I will serve the Lord? But as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord" (Joshua 24:14-15). Because God had delivered the people from Egyptian slavery, destroyed Egypt in the Red Sea, and had conquered the nations that opposed them, the challenge is clear. Fear the Lord and serve him in sincerity and in faithfulness.

What does Joshua 24 verse 15 say? And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

What does it mean to serve in the House of the Lord? We are called to be servants (someone who provides an important service or performs certain duties) and to do so wholeheartedly (with earnest devotion or complete commitment). Serve the Lord with gladness, come before his presence with singing. (Psalm 100:2)

How did Joshua serve God? Joshua was trained by God and Moses for 40 years to lead the people into the Promised Land. He witnessed the miracles of God in Egypt and the wilderness. He led Israel into battle against the Amalekites. He accompanied Moses up Mount Sinai to receive the 10 Commandments.

What is the best way to serve God?

What does it really mean to serve the Lord? Serving God means making him real in the things, and in the different ways, we conduct ourselves. While it is true that we are saved by faith and not by works, so that no one can boast, as what the Apostle Paul says, true faith cannot help but translate itself into good action.

How does the Lord want us to serve him? First, we must serve God in truth, or in the way consistent with his word. Jesus came to do the will of his Father and we must do the same. Jesus said that we cannot serve two masters because we will either hate the one and love the other or we will be devoted to the one and despise the other.

How to serve God as a woman?

What happens when you serve God? Serving allows us to experience God's presence in new ways. Encouragement and healing go hand in hand. As we encourage others and they find healing, we're encouraged. It's the reason so many people who go on mission trips say they came home feeling like they got more than they gave.

How to live a life of service to God?

What does "as for me and my household we will serve the Lord" mean? This speech from Joshua calls for us to be witnesses just as he calls the Israelites: that we have to not just speak these words so we "look" like Christians, but proclaim them boldly to ourselves that, from this day forth, our houses, our families, and ourselves will serve only the one, true Lord.

What does the Bible say about choosing who you will serve? Joshua says, "choose this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your ancestors served in the region beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are living;

AS FOR ME AND MY HOUSE WE WILL SERVE THE LORD THE MY

but as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord" (Joshua 24:15).

Why did Joshua say you are not able to serve the Lord? I'm delighted to hear you're on board!" Instead, Joshua sternly replies, "You cannot serve the LORD!" God is jealous for your love, and God will not forgive you endlessly and without consequence. If you forsake God, God will "consume you, after having done you good" (Joshua 24:19).
