Question: What is the central dogma of molecular biology?

Answer: The central dogma of molecular biology describes the flow of genetic information from DNA to RNA to protein. DNA serves as a blueprint for RNA synthesis (transcription), and RNA acts as a template for protein synthesis (translation).

Question: What are the different types of RNA?

Answer: The three main types of RNA are messenger RNA (mRNA), ribosomal RNA (rRNA), and transfer RNA (tRNA). mRNA carries the genetic code from DNA to ribosomes, where rRNA and tRNA facilitate the synthesis of proteins.

Question: How does the cell membrane maintain homeostasis?

Answer: The cell membrane is a selectively permeable barrier that regulates the movement of substances into and out of the cell. It maintains homeostasis by controlling the exchange of ions, nutrients, and waste products, ensuring a stable internal environment.

Question: What is the role of mitochondria in cellular metabolism?

Answer: Mitochondria are known as the "powerhouses of the cell" because they generate most of the cell's energy. They convert chemical energy from food into usable energy (ATP) through the process of cellular respiration.

Question: How does the cell cycle ensure the faithful replication of DNA and division of cells?

Answer: The cell cycle is a series of events that lead to the growth, division, and death of a cell. It includes DNA replication (S phase), chromosome separation (M phase), and cell division (cytokinesis). The cell cycle ensures the accurate inheritance of genetic material and the proper division of cells.
