What is the movie "L Change the WorLd" about?

Is L: Change the WorLd canon? It's definitely not canon. L: Change the WorLd takes place in the live action films setting, where L does not die. Also, its events are never mentioned in Another Note, both for this reason and because the events in Another Note happen before that time.

How did L beat Light in L: Change the WorLd? L Change The World took place in an alternate reality where L defeated Light by writing his own name into the notebook after discovering it, giving him more time to live than he did in other adaptations.

Did Mello write L: Change the WorLd? In the title L: Change the WorLd, the L in "WorLd" is capitalized; this is presumably done in order to represent L. The author "M" is the pen name of a real person and is not Mello, the in-universe author of Death Note Another Note: The Los Angeles BB Murder Cases.

Are there any Death Note spin-offs? L: Change the World (stylized as L: change the WorLd) is a 2008 Japanese thriller film and a spin-off to the Death Note film series. Although the film is inspired by the manga Death Note that was written by Tsugumi Ohba and illustrated by Takeshi Obata, it follows an original storyline.

What is L's real first name? In Death Note His real name, L Lawliet, is only revealed in the guidebook Death Note 13: How to Read.

Was L asexual? LGBTQ+ Coded L shows very little interest in women in his source anime, leading many to headcanon him as potentially asexual... though he does show vested interest in Light, a male (because he believes he's Kira), leading to some to headcanon him as gay.

Who killed L in Death Note? He died at the hands of the Shinigami Rem, as L was planning to put Misa Amane in harm's way to try to find evidence, something Rem wouldn't allow. So at the cost of her own life, Rem killed L and Watari to save Misa. L died immediately of a heart attack in the arms of Light Yagami.

How old is L in Death Note? L is 25 when he dies. In the anime and manga series "Death Note," there is a significant age gap between the two main characters, Light Yagami and L. Light Yagami, the protagonist of the series, is a high school student who is initially depicted as a 17-year-old. He was born on February 28, 1986.

Is L Lawliet virgin? No. But we never find out who he slept with. L had a real life outside of his work.

Did Light regret killing L? This leaves Light shocked and stunned, a revelation soon forming in his mind. He would be able to prevent the deaths of Raye Penbur and Naomi Masura, both of whom he, at one point, greatly regretted killing, L, and even the FBI Agents.

Did Light cry when L died? Light is torn apart when L dies, he is devastated but Kira is on the top of the world. That was another scene where I couldn't help but tear up. That episode broke me on the inside, and in a way that I have not been broken before.

Is Near L's son? Both Mello and Near were designed after L and were initially envisioned as twins and sons of L. Ultimately, this idea was dropped, with their designs switched compared to the original concept. He is voiced in the Japanese anime series by Nozomu Sasaki and in the English adaptation by David Hurwitz.

Are Near and Mello smarter than L? Apart from L, Near is easily the smartest character in the series – smarter even than his partner, Mello. Near managed to make it to the very end, but he probably wouldn't have caught Light or made it as far as he did without the help of L and Mello.

What race is Mello?

Was Death Note supposed to end when L died? Ohba claims that the series ended more or less in the manner that they intended for it to end; they considered the idea of L defeating Light Yagami with Light dying but instead chose to use the "Yellow Box Warehouse" ending. According to Ohba, the details had been set "from the beginning".

Why did Death Note end like that? Given all he has done as the wicked antihero, Light Yagami wasn't just vulnerable to losing to his enemies – he deserved to, and the creators knew that. It was on them not just to kill off Light to bring the story to a solid conclusion, but also to punish Light Yagami for his many evil misdeeds.

Who was the next Death Note user? Minoru Tanaka (???, Tanaka Minoru) is the new possessor of the Death Note and the main protagonist of the one-shot sequel chapter The a-Kira Story (also titled Death Note: Special One Shot), where he decides to auction off the Death Note instead of using it.

Why do they call L Ryuzaki? Ohba said that for L's name he wanted to use a single letter with a lot of significance; according to Ohba he considered "I" and "J" but decided that they did not "feel as good" as "L" and chose "L" "after careful consideration." Ohba said that he gave L the alias "Ryuzaki" because L is pronounced like R in Japanese.

Who is L's love interest? Although Misa fills the traditional role of the love interest, her relationship with Light is one-sided as he uses her simply for his own gains. In the anime adaptation, Misa is voiced by Aya Hirano in Japanese and by Shannon Chan-Kent in the English version.

Was Light actually L's friend? Though he didn't get along with either of them right away, L has called both Light and Misa "his friend" at some point throughout the series. However, he never actually meant it and thought very negatively about the two of them.

How did L get white hair? Genetic factors, stress, hair dyes, and other factors may contribute. The human body has millions of hair follicles or small sacs lining the skin. The follicles generate hair and color or pigment cells that contain melanin. Over time, hair follicles lose pigment cells, resulting in white hair color.

Is Light Yagami queer? Light Yagami was neither gay nor asexual. In fact he was a player due to his good looks and popularity. The gay rumors is fueled mainly because of the foot washing scene by L. But it was just a symbolic representation of Jesus Christ washing the feet of Judas before he was betrayed by him.

Who had a crush on L? Kyoko is a student at To-Oh University who seems to have a crush on L, whom she knows by his alias, "Hideki Ryuga."

Why did light see L as he died? The appearance of L in front of him seemed to have been intended to regard the memories of the friendship between the two back in the first arc of the Death Note storyline. As well, it could also imply that L was Light's friend and he wasn't going to let him die alone, implying the motives of an afterlife.

Why is L so weird in Death Note? Some Death Note fans also believe that due to his obsession with his work, L may be on the autism spectrum. Therefore, his compulsions may seem odd to some but are completely normal in his reality. Not only does L's particular style of sitting help with his movement, it likewise aids his mental alertness.

Is L's death Sad? Yes , it's very sad . Yes i did find it very emotional when L died in the anime.
