The Nonverbal Communication Reader: Classic and Contemporary Readings

What is nonverbal communication?

Nonverbal communication refers to the exchange of messages without words. It includes facial expressions, gestures, body language, eye contact, and vocal cues. Nonverbal signals can convey a variety of information, including emotions, attitudes, and intentions.

Why is nonverbal communication important?

Nonverbal communication is often more revealing than verbal communication. It can provide insights into a person's true feelings and intentions. Additionally, nonverbal cues can help us to build rapport, resolve conflict, and create more effective relationships.

What are some examples of nonverbal communication?

Some common examples of nonverbal communication include:

- Facial expressions: These can convey a wide range of emotions, such as happiness, sadness, anger, and surprise.
- Gestures: These can be used to indicate agreement, disagreement, or other messages.

- Body language: This includes posture, stance, and movements. It can convey a person's confidence, assertiveness, or openness.
- Eye contact: This can be used to establish intimacy or convey dominance.
- Vocal cues: These include intonation, volume, and pitch. They can convey a person's mood or attitude.

How can you improve your nonverbal communication skills?

There are a number of things you can do to improve your nonverbal communication skills. These include:

- Practice active listening. This means paying attention to both the verbal and nonverbal messages that others are sending.
- Be aware of your own body language. Make sure that your nonverbal cues are congruent with your verbal messages.
- Take a nonverbal communication course. This can help you to learn more about the different types of nonverbal cues and how to interpret them.

Conclusion

Nonverbal communication is a powerful tool that can be used to enhance our relationships and communication. By understanding the different types of nonverbal cues and how to interpret them, we can become more effective communicators.
