Active and Passive Skills: Enhancing Your Abilities

What is an Active Skill?

An active skill is an ability that requires conscious activation by the user. It is typically an intentional action that triggers a specific outcome or effect. Active skills contrast with passive skills, which operate automatically without requiring direct user input.

5 Active Listening Skills

Active listening involves actively engaging in the communication process to understand and respond effectively to others. Key skills include:

1. Paying attention
2. Summarizing
3. Questioning
4. Reflecting
5. Empathizing

Active Learning Skills

Active learning involves actively participating in the learning process, rather than passively absorbing information. Skills include:

- Critical thinking
- Problem-solving
- Collaboration
- Communication

- Self-reflection
