Is a situationship a hookup? Hsieh described situationships as "a hookup with emotional benefits," as opposed to the equally amorphous "friends with benefits," which starts platonically but develops a sexual component. What the two do have in common, though, is a lack of commitment and clearly defined roles.

Is situationship a fling? There's no talk about future plans. There's no talk about when whatever it is you have with this person might end or if it's a forever thing. This differentiates a situationship from a fling, which, although shares a loose definition and commitment, usually has a definite end date.
