What does it mean to be children of God? Our identity as a child of God means that we rely fully on God and trust in His plan for our lives. mourning.

What did Jesus say about children in the Bible? Mark 10:13-16. People were bringing little children to Jesus for him to place his hands on them, but the disciples rebuked them. Did Jesus say we are gods? Jesus did not take the statement “you are gods” in Psalm 82 and apply it to all humanity or to all believers. The use of gods in Psalm 82 was a metaphor. Jesus spoke of that metaphor to expose both the ignorance and inconsistency of His accusers.

Why is cremation forbidden in Christianity? History. In Christian countries, cremation fell out of favor due to the Christian belief in the physical resurrection of the body. Christians also used burial as a mark of difference from the Iron Age European pre-Christian Pagan religions, which usually cremated their dead.

Should Christians wear tattoos? Ultimately scripture neither presents the idea that tattoos somehow harm the temple of God (our body) or dishonor God. In fact, God uses the idea of a tattoo favorably when he speaks of his remembrance of his people. However, while tattoos are permissible it is not always wise to get one.

What does God mean when he says be like a child? He calls a child to Him and puts that child in the middle of the group. He says they must become "like children" in order to enter the kingdom—a reference to humility and sincere obedience. The greatest is one who humbles himself in this way.

What qualifies us as children of God? We are all children of God in the sense that we are all created in God's image. Every person is valuable and precious because they are made by God.
