How old is Billy in Cities of the Plain? All three books of the trilogy are in the same unconventional writing style, but the dialogue gets even more ambiguous and confusing in Cities of the Plain. What is the easiest Cormac McCarthy book to read? A great western, All the Pretty Horses is the most accessible. The Road is a also popular starting point, demonstrating McCarthy's style at its most distilled.

What are the criticisms of Cormac McCarthy? The problem with a novel like No Country for Old Men is that it cannot give violence any depth, context, or even reality. The artificial theatre of the writing makes the violence routine and showy.
