Can I download a universal remote for my TV? Universal TV Remote Control works with virtually any TV model, making the app a must-have. For older TVs, of course, you will need your Android device to include the infrared function, while to use it with a more modern Smart TV, both devices only need to be connected to the same Wi-Fi network.

What is the 4 digit code for my Samsung TV? The default PIN is set to 0000. You can change or reset the PIN accordingly.

How do I get my remote to work with my Samsung TV? If you use Smart remote control, it may need to be paired to work properly again. Press the Return and Play/Pause buttons simultaneously for more than 3 seconds to display the pairing pop-up window. Remove any obstructions between your TV and your remote.

Will a universal remote work on any Samsung TV? Most universal remotes will work with your Samsung TV or projector as well, such as those found on Amazon or possibly even the remote that was included with your cable or satellite box. If you buy a universal remote, make sure the remote says it is compatible with Samsung before you buy it.

How do I know if a universal remote will work with my TV? As long as your smart TV has an Infrared sensor (or whatever connection type your remote uses, like Bluetooth or Wi-Fi), your universal remote should work with it. But some universal remotes will control only your TV's power, volume, and channel up/down buttons.

How to use Samsung remote?

How to turn on Samsung TV with remote? Remote Control: Many Samsung TVs have the power button integrated into the remote control. The remote control's power button is typically labeled with a power symbol (a circle with a line through it) or the word "Power." Pressing the power button on the remote control sends a signal to the TV to turn it on or off.

Why is my Samsung TV not responding to the remote? The most common are physical damage, battery issues, pairing issues, or issues with the infrared sensor on the remote or TV. And if it won't work when you try to use it on your TV, there's a quick check to perform to figure out if it's your remote or your TV at fault.

What is the Creativity Inc book about? 'Creativity, Inc. ' by Ed Catmull with Amy Wallace reveals the creative strategies used by Pixar Animation Studios to become a leading force in the animation industry. The book shares valuable insights on how to build and sustain a creative culture in any organization.

What is the difference between Creativity Inc and the expanded edition? Creativity, Inc. has been significantly expanded to illuminate the continuing development of the unique culture at Pixar. It features a new introduction, two entirely new chapters, four new chapter postscripts, and changes and updates throughout.

Is Creativity Inc worth reading? Thoughts: This was an excellent book. Although the focus is on management and what worked for Ed Catmull as president of Pixar and later Walt Disney Animation, there's something in here for everyone to appreciate.

What is the summary of creativity? creativity, Ability to produce something new through imaginative skill, whether a new solution to a problem, a new method or device, or a new artistic object or form. The term generally refers to a richness of ideas and originality of thinking.

Are there levels of creativity? To help you master that process, you first must understand three important levels of creativity, which are discovery, invention, and creation.

What is the difference between P creative and H creative? An idea is P-creative if it is creative with respect to the mind of the person concerned, even if others have had that idea already. An idea is H-creative if it is P-creative and no other person has had the idea before.

What is the difference between creative agency and studio? Agencies will need more time to execute a project than a studio due to the many hands that are involved in the process. Studios are smaller and can generally turn projects around much quicker. Do you often require small projects, or are they far larger?

What happens in chapter 2 of Of Mice and Men? In Chapter 2 of Of Mice and Men, George and Lennie arrive at the ranch they are going to work on, and they go to the bunkhouse. They meet Candy, the boss, Curley, Curley's wife, Slim, and Carlson. Candy tells them about Curley being newly married and mean.

What words were used by the men to refer to Curley's wife? Curley's wife is usually referred to as a tramp, tart, or a looloo by the men on the ranch. In the story, her name isn't mentioned, instead called "Curley's wife". In this story, she portrays a female's sexuality in a world where there are only men.

Why was the boss angry when George and Lennie showed up at the bunkhouse? The next morning, George and Lennie arrive at the ranch and go to the bunkhouse. The old swamper, Candy, informs them the boss is mad because they were supposed to arrive the night before.

What is your impression of slim? Slim is a very likable character in Of Mice and Men who everyone on the ranch seems to respect. When we first meet Slim, John Steinbeck writes: He was a jerkline skinner, the prince of the ranch.... There was a gravity in his manner and a quiet so profound that all talk stopped when he spoke.

Why does George get mad at Lennie in chapter 2? After the boss leaves, why is George angry with Lennie? He told Lennie to not say a word, but he did which almost lost them their jobs. Lennie said, "strong as a bull."

Why does Curley hate Lennie? Curley does not seem to like anyone, especially not Lennie, because Lennie is big and strong. Curley doesn't like big guys because he is a small guy himself. One day Curley hits Lennie, without any good reason. First Lennie did not do anything, but then he hit back, as George requested.

Why was Lennie shaking Curley's wife? He clings to her and gets mad that she is yelling, so he shakes her, which breaks her neck. He runs away, and George and Candy, another worker on the farm, find Curley's wife's body. Curley is enraged and wants to kill Lennie, and he thinks Lennie has stolen a gun. The men go in search of Lennie.

Why is Curley's wife referred to as a girl? She is always referred to in relation to Curley, implying she has no identity outside of her marriage. As the only 'developed' female character in the novella it is interesting she is never given a proper name as it highlights the deep rooted inequality prevalent in the 1930s, especially in rural America.

What does Candy call Curley's wife? After he leaves, Candy tells George and Lennie about Curley and Curley's wife. He says that Curley is a small insecure man who hates big men, and he calls Curley's wife a "tart."

What excuse does George give for Lennie's slowness in chapter 2? Answer and Explanation: When George and Lennie first arrive at their new ranch hand job, George speaks on Lennie's behalf so often that the boss wonders why. George explains that Lennie is his cousin and that he got kicked in the head by a horse as a child, resulting in his mental retardation.

How is Slim described in chapter 2 Of Mice and Men? Slim, for example, is the sensitive, compassionate man whose word is law. Everyone respects him, and he seems to be the only one who is capable of understanding why George and Lennie travel together.

What does Lennie want in chapter 2? In the second chapter of the novella, Lennie overhears Slim talking about the litter of pups his dog has just delivered. Lennie grows very excited about the prospect of owning one of Slim's puppies, and he begs George to ask Slim if it would be ok if he could have one.

What is a jerkline skinner on a ranch? Jerkline Skinner: Lead driver of a team of mules. Stable Buck: A derogatory name for an African-American man who works in the stables. Stetson Hat: A famous brand of hats, especially cowboy hats. Stetson Hat. ?Swamper: A general assistant; handyman.

Why is Slim so respected on the ranch? Slim is the most respected character on the ranch, despite not actually being in charge (although he is in charge of one of the grain teams). He is calm and thoughtful; all of the other men look up to him and value his opinions.

What does "jerkline skinner" mean? A jerkline skinner is the main driver of a mule team who handles the jerkline (reins).

What happened in CH-2 Of Mice and Men?

Why does Lennie want to leave the ranch in chapter 2? Lennie does not want to be at the new ranch he is scared. Lennie wants to leave but George says they have to wait just a bit until they get some money. Lennie does not feel safe where they are. Once they have money they could leave because George wants to keep Lennie safe.

How is candy described in chapter 2? Candy is "a tall, stoop-shouldered old man He was dressed in blue jeans and carried a big push-broom in his left hand." His right hand is simply a stump because he lost his hand in a ranch accident. Now the owners of the ranch keep him on as long as he can "swamp" out or clean the bunkhouse.

Why does Curley wear a Vaseline glove? Curley wears a "glove fulla Vaseline" on one hand because, according to Candy, "he's keepin' that hand soft for his wife." Since farm work is physical and tough on a person's hands, the Vaseline will prevent at least one of Curley's hands from becoming chapped and rough—something he clearly believes his wife would find ...

Is Curley to blame for Lennie's death? Lennie would suffer regardless with George even if he came to see him in prison. Lennie has no way out in this so George did the right thing by putting Lennie out of his misery by killing him. Curley would not just kill Lennie he would have made him suffer by torturing him because Lennie had humiliated Curly twice.

What is Curley afraid of? Curley fears losing power over the workers, and almost everyone fears Curley.

Is Lennie autistic? Of Mice and Men remains a staple text in schools in both the United States and United Kingdom, where both neuro-typical and disabled pupils encounter it. The character of Lennie has learning difficulties and also—as identified by some researchers—exhibits many characteristics of autism.

What did Lennie do to the girl? George also confides in Slim about Lennie's trouble in Weed: When Lennie touched a girl's dress, the girl screamed. Lennie got so scared that George had to hit him with a fence post to get him to let go. The girl claimed she had been raped, and so Lennie and George hid in an irrigation ditch and left in the night.

Why did George shoot Lennie? Answer and Explanation: The reason George shoots Lennie at the end of Of Mice and Men is because Lennie killed Curley's wife. If George did not shoot Lennie, the large man would either be shot in the stomach by Curley, a slow and painful death, or locked up in an institution.

Why is Lennie happy at the end of Chapter 2? At the end of chapter 2, Lennie is as excited as a little child about Slim's puppies. Lennie wants George to ask Slim if he can have a brown and white puppy. Chapter 3 is about relationships. The author's purpose is to show how unusual George and Lennie's relationship is for this time period.

What is George doing throughout the scene in chapter 2? Final answer: George is reading a book throughout the scene in Chapter 2.

Who is Candy in chapter 2 Of Mice and Men? Candy is an older, one-handed man who lives and works on the ranch that George and Lennie arrive at in the beginning of Of Mice and Men. He is the outcast of the workers on the ranch. He is older than them, and he is nearing the end of his productiveness.

How is Curley's wife presented in chapter 2? She had full, rouged lips and wide-spaced eyes, heavily made up. Her fingernails were red. Her hair hung in little rolled clusters, like sausages. She wore a cotton house dress and red mules, on the insteps of which were little bouquets of red ostrich feathers.

Why does Lennie end up killing Curley's wife? He accidentally killed a puppy, and he is scared that George will get angry and say he can't have rabbits. Later, when Lennie is touching Curley's wife and she screams, Lennie is scared George will get mad if he hears her. Lennie ends up killing her, and then he runs away.

Why is Lennie obsessed with dead mice? Why does Lennie have a dead mouse in his pocket? As the story begins, Lennie has a dead mouse in his pocket because he likes to pet soft things but doesn't know his own strength and accidentally killed the mouse when he pet it too hard.

Why did Curley beat up Lennie? One day, Lennie is smiling while thinking about a dream he had. Curley sees Lennie's friendly smile and assumes Lennie is laughing at him. Curley attacks Lennie in retaliation.

What happened in chapter 2 of Of Mice and Men?

How is Slim described in chapter 2 Of Mice and Men? Slim, for example, is the sensitive, compassionate man whose word is law. Everyone respects him, and he seems to be the only one who is capable of understanding why George and Lennie travel together.

What excuse does George give for Lennie's slowness in chapter 2? Answer and Explanation: When George and Lennie first arrive at their new ranch hand job, George speaks on Lennie's behalf so often that the boss wonders why. George explains that Lennie is his cousin and that he got kicked in the head by a horse as a child, resulting in his mental retardation.

How is Carlson described in chapter 2? Carlson is physically described as being "powerful, big-stomached...and thick-bodied..." His entire description is centered around his physical appearance rather than his personality; which can easily go unnoticed.

What is the conflict between George and Curley in chapter 2? As George and Lennie prepare to leave, Curley appears again, looking for his wife, and hurries off angrily when they tell him where she went. George expresses his dislike for Curley, and comments that he is afraid he will "tangle" with Curley himself.

What happens to Candy's dog in Chapter 2? Candy doesn't want to let his dog go since it is his one remaining companion, but Carlson eventually convinces him that killing the dog is an act of kindness. The death of Candy's dog foreshadows Lennie's death at the end of Of Mice and Men.

owners of the ranch keep him on as long as he can "swamp" out or clean the bunkhouse.

Does Curley hit his wife? According to the quote, Curley 's wife does not like her own husband! She was forced into marrying a guy she doesn 't truly love. Curly would abuse her, use her as bragging rights, and never spend time with his wife. Curley even had a glove filled with Vaseline so one of his hands could be soft for touching his wife.

Why was George mad at Lennie? In Of Mice and Men, George is constantly upset with Lennie because of Lennie's impact on his life. First, he complains that Lennie forgets everything, so George has to spend his days repeating information to Lennie that Lennie will only forget. Then, George complains that Lennie always wants "what we ain't got."
