What is a famous quote on Atonement?

What is the message of Atonement by Ian McEwan? The most essential theme of Atonement is the way an individual's perspective inevitably shapes his or her reality. At various points throughout the novel, McEwan filters the narrative through a particular character's point of view.

What are the quotes at the end of the Atonement? Epilogue Quotes There is no one, no entity or higher form that she can appeal to or be reconciled with, or that can forgive her. There is nothing outside her. In her imagination she has set the limits and the terms. No atonement for God, or novelists, even if they are atheists.

What is the message of the novel Atonement? Briony can only interpret the events through her limited perspective. An important message, therefore, could be that people need to understand other perspectives of an event before pronouncing judgement on it. The novel delves into the idea of atonement and whether it is possible to truly make up for past mistakes.

What is Ian McEwan key quotes in Atonement? A person is, among all else, a material thing, easily torn and not easily mended. It wasn't only wickedness and scheming that made people unhappy, it was confusion and misunderstanding; above all, it was the failure to grasp the simple truth that other people are as real as you.

What is the moral lesson of the Atonement? This teaches us that we cannot earn, or do anything in ourselves, to atone for our sins. We could never work hard enough or do sufficient good deeds to earn forgiveness. Jesus did all the work for us. Our salvation was purchased entirely by Him, and He offers it as a free gift to those who come to Him in repentance.

What is the twist in Atonement? Finally, Briony reveals to the reader that Robbie Turner died of septicaemia on the beaches of Dunkirk, that Cecilia was killed several months later when a bomb destroyed Balham Underground station during the Blitz, and that Briony's story of seeing them together in 1940 was a fabrication.

Why did Briony lie in Atonement? While, the dark and deceptive nature of Briony isn't disguised by the novel, the motives behind her deception are left to the interpretation of the reader. One of the more obvious motivations for Briony's libel is the intense jealousy she felt towards her sister Cecilia.

Why does Cecilia jump in the fountain? Cecilia scolds Robbie, who takes responsibility before beginning to unbutton his shirt to go in the fountain to get the pieces. Cecilia, adamant that she will not accept Robbie's help, strips down to her underwear and dives into the fountain herself, retrieving the broken pieces of the vase.

What is the last line of the book Atonement? The last line of the novel is "But now I must sleep." Sleep reminds us of dreams, which is fitting since Briony has essentially dreamt up the whole novel. It suggests death too, though, which is coming for Briony shortly. But it's also an announcement that she's going to put down her pen.

Why was Cecilia crying in the library? She took him to the library and closed the door, where he told her he meant to send a different version of the letter. Cecilia, through tears, told Robbie that their attraction has existed for weeks or months, but she was only able to acknowledge it today.

What does Atonement teach us? Please review with me three things about the Atonement: The Atonement allows us to repent and learn from our own sins and mistakes. The Atonement heals us, including from things beyond our own control. The Atonement can enable us, can strengthen us in our efforts to grow and follow the Savior.

What is the message of Atonement? As used in the scriptures, to atone is to suffer the penalty for sins, thereby removing the effects of sin from the repentant sinner and allowing him or her to be reconciled to God. Jesus Christ was the only one capable of carrying out the Atonement for all mankind.

Why did Briony become a nurse? However, Part Three illustrates just how much that regret has driven Briony's life. Her decision to become a nurse instead of attend Cambridge is a form of self-punishment, but also perhaps her way of trying to help many other people after she had a hand in ruining the lives of two people she loved.

What did Jesus say about Atonement? Jesus explained: "I lay down my life, that I might take it again. No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again" (John 10:17–18). Jesus also qualified to be our Savior because He is the only person who has ever lived on the earth who did not sin.

What is the most popular Atonement theory? Classically, the Christus Victor theory of Atonement is widely considered to be the dominant theory for most of the historical Christian Church. In this theory, Jesus Christ dies in order to defeat the powers of evil (such as sin, death, and the devil) in order to free mankind from their bondage.

What is the last sentence of Atonement? The last line of the novel is "But now I must sleep." Sleep reminds us of dreams, which is fitting since Briony has essentially dreamt up the whole novel.
