6-Session Bible Study for Teens: Exploring Faith and Identity

Session 1: Who am I?

- Question: How does our environment and experiences shape who we are?
- Answer: Our upbringing, culture, and relationships influence our self-perception and identity.

Session 2: Created in God's Image

- Question: What does it mean to be made in God's image?
- Answer: Being created in God's image implies that we possess inherent worth, dignity, and a connection to the divine.

Session 3: Brokenness and Redemption

- Question: How does sin impact our lives and relationships?
- Answer: Sin alienates us from God and others, leading to guilt, shame, and brokenness. However, through Jesus Christ's sacrifice, we can find redemption and a restored relationship with God.

Session 4: The Holy Spirit in Our Lives

- Question: How does the Holy Spirit guide and empower us?
- Answer: The Holy Spirit is God's active presence within us, providing wisdom, guidance, and power to live out our faith.

Session 5: Finding Our Calling

- Question: How do we discover God's purpose for our lives?
- Answer: God has given each of us unique gifts and abilities. By reflecting on our strengths, passions, and the needs of the world, we can discern our calling and purpose.

Session 6: Living Out Our Faith

- Question: How can we apply our faith in practical ways?
- Answer: True faith involves putting our beliefs into action. This includes serving others, sharing our testimony, and living according to God's principles.
