"This Voice in My Heart": Healing the Wounds of Genocide, Faith, and Forgiveness

This Voice in My Heart: A Runner's Memoir of Genocide, Faith, and Forgiveness by Gilbert Tuhabonye is a powerful and moving account of the author's experience as a survivor of the Rwandan genocide. Through a series of poignant and deeply personal reflections, Tuhabonye explores the complexities of trauma, loss, and the transformative power of faith and forgiveness.

Q: What inspired you to write "This Voice in My Heart"?

A: I felt compelled to share my story as a testimony to the resilience of the human spirit and to offer hope to others who have suffered unimaginable pain. I wanted to show that even in the face of such darkness, there can be light and healing.

Q: How did your faith sustain you during the genocide?

A: My faith in God was my anchor during the darkest of days. I drew strength from my prayers and the belief that my life had a purpose beyond the horrors I witnessed. It gave me the courage to forgive and to seek reconciliation.

Q: What role did running play in your recovery?

A: Running became my sanctuary, a way to escape the pain and process my emotions. It allowed me to focus on the present moment and to experience a sense of freedom and accomplishment. It also helped me connect with others who had suffered similar losses.

Q: How have you found forgiveness for those who committed the genocide?

A: Forgiveness has been a long and difficult journey, but it is essential for my own healing. I have come to understand that forgiveness is not about condoning evil but rather about releasing the burden of hatred and seeking a path to reconciliation. I believe that by forgiving, we can break the cycle of violence and create a better future for our communities.

Q: What message do you hope readers will take away from your memoir?

A: I want readers to understand that even in the face of unspeakable tragedy, hope and healing are possible. I hope that my story will inspire others to find courage, resilience, and compassion within themselves. I believe that by sharing our stories and embracing forgiveness, we can create a world where peace and understanding prevail.
