Others interpret the final scene as a dying hallucination of Jonas's that was triggered by the first memory The Giver gave him.

What is the moral story of The Giver? The main message in "The Giver" is that we must be careful with our freedom of choice and use of censorship. What is the whole point of The Giver? Throughout The Giver, Lowry attempts to awaken each and every reader to the dangers that exist when people opt for conformity over individuality and for unexamined security over freedom. Even if Jonas and Gabriel do not survive, their freedom in and of itself is triumphant.

Why did they get rid of love in The Giver? there is no suffering and pain. This statement plays a large role in the theme of The Giver. When elders of Jonas' community decided to create their utopian world, they decided to remove love, feelings, and emotions, because they caused pain and suffering.
