What is Gross's "Tao of Photography"?

Philippe L. Gross's philosophy of photography, often referred to as the "Tao of Photography," emphasizes the transformative power of seeing beyond the surface level. - Embrace the present moment: Photography is all about capturing a moment in time. Be fully present in the moment you're taking the photo, and let the scene unfold naturally before you. Allow your emotions and instincts to guide your compositions.
- Look beyond the obvious: Don't settle for the easy or expected shots. Challenge yourself to find unique perspectives and unconventional angles that reveal the hidden beauty and depth of your subject.
