Q: What are the key features of an Unchained Monk? A: Unchained Monks have several defining features:

- Fists of Fury: Improved unarmed strike damage that can also stun.
- Ki-Empowered Strikes: Unarmed strikes deal additional damage equal to half the Monk's Wisdom bonus.
- Monastic Tradition: Way of the Open Hand: Grants the ability to knock prone and grapple enemies.
- Monastic Focus: Spend ki points to amplify stun duration or add strength to unarmed strikes.

Q: How does the Unchained Monk differ from the standard Monk? A: Unlike the standard Monk, the Unchained Monk:

- Does not have any ki abilities aside from Monastic Focus.
- Instead, gains increased unarmed damage and special combat techniques.
- Relies less on ki management and more on physical prowess.

Q: Is the Unchained Monk a good subclass? A: The Unchained Monk can be a powerful subclass for characters who want to focus on unarmed combat. It offers high damage output, control options, and a unique playstyle that stands out from other Monk subclasses.

Q: What are some tips for playing as an Unchained Monk? A: To maximize your effectiveness as an Unchained Monk:

- Prioritize Strength and Dexterity for increased unarmed damage.
- Use your Fists of Fury ability to stun enemies and control the battlefield.

- Combine Ki-Empowered Strikes and Monastic Focus for devastating attacks.
- Use grappling and prone effects to your advantage to lock down enemies.
- Consider multiclassing with other classes that enhance unarmed combat, such as the Barbarian or Fighter.
