Navigating Synagis Prescription Enrollment with Accredo

What is Synagis and why is it prescribed?

Synagis is a medication prescribed to prevent serious respiratory infections (RSVs) in infants and children with weakened immune systems or chronic lung conditions. It is administered through a monthly injection during the RSV season, typically from November to April.

How do I enroll my child in the Synagis prescription program with Accredo?

To enroll your child in the Synagis prescription program with Accredo, you will need to contact your healthcare provider to determine if Synagis is appropriate for your child. Your healthcare provider will complete a prescription enrollment form that includes information about your child's medical condition, weight, and prescription dosage.

What information is required on the Synagis prescription enrollment form?

The Synagis prescription enrollment form requires the following information:

- Child's name, date of birth, and weight
- Child's physician's name, contact information, and DEA number
- Child's medical condition and history of RSV infections
- Child's current medications
- Parent/guardian name, contact information, and insurance details

How do I submit the enrollment form to Accredo?

Once the enrollment form is completed and signed by your healthcare provider, you can fax it to Accredo at the number provided on the form. You can also submit the form online through Accredo's secure website.

What happens after I submit the enrollment form?

After submitting the enrollment form, Accredo will review it and contact you to confirm the enrollment. They will work with your healthcare provider to coordinate the delivery of Synagis injections and provide support throughout the treatment period.
