Who Would Jesus Kill? War, Peace, and the Christian Tradition

The question of whether Jesus would endorse violence has haunted Christianity for centuries. In modern times, it has taken on new urgency as Christians grapple with issues such as terrorism, genocide, and the use of military force.

Would Jesus Sanction Killing?

The answer to this question lies in the Gospels themselves. Jesus taught that love is the greatest commandment (Matthew 22:34-40) and that we should love our enemies (Matthew 5:44). He also said that he came to bring peace, not the sword (Matthew 10:34).

These teachings seem to suggest that Jesus would not endorse violence. However, it is important to note that Jesus also said that he came to bring judgment (John 9:39). He also said that he would return to earth with a sword (Revelation 19:15).

Reconciling Violence and Pacifism

How can we reconcile these seemingly contradictory teachings? Some Christians believe that Jesus would endorse violence in self-defense or in defense of others.

Others believe that Jesus would always advocate for pacifism.

The Just War Tradition

The Just War Tradition is a Christian doctrine that attempts to justify the use of military force under certain conditions. These conditions include:

- The war must have a just cause (such as defending against aggression).
- The war must be waged by a legitimate authority.
- The war must be conducted in a just manner (with the goal of minimizing suffering).

Alternative Perspectives

Not all Christians agree with the Just War Tradition. Some Christian pacifists believe that violence is never justified, even in self-defense. Others believe that the use of military force can sometimes be justified, but that it should always be a last resort.

Conclusion

The question of whether Jesus would endorse violence is not an easy one to answer. The Gospels provide evidence to support both pacifism and the Just War Tradition. Ultimately, each Christian must decide for themselves how they interpret Jesus' teachings on this issue.

Toddler No Cry Sleep Solution: Your Guide to Restful Nights

What is the Toddler No Cry Sleep Solution?

The Toddler No Cry Sleep Solution is a gentle and gradual approach to helping toddlers learn healthy sleep habits without crying or resistance. It focuses on creating a consistent and calming bedtime routine, establishing clear boundaries, and providing support and reassurance as toddlers adjust to their new sleep schedule.

How does it work?

The solution follows a series of steps that gradually reduce the amount of parental support provided at bedtime. Initially, parents stay with the child until they fall asleep, providing comfort and reassurance. As the child becomes more independent, parents gradually move further away from the bed, eventually leaving the child to fall asleep on their own.

Doesn't it involve crying?

While the No Cry Solution aims to minimize crying, it is important to note that some amount of resistance is common as children adjust to the new routine. The key is to stay calm and consistent, providing support and encouragement without giving in to tantrums or returning to previous sleep habits.

Is it effective?

Studies have shown that the Toddler No Cry Sleep Solution can be effective in improving sleep quality and reducing nighttime awakenings. It is a safe and gentle approach that respects the child's emotional development and promotes a positive parent-child relationship.

How long does it take?

The duration of the process varies depending on the child's age and temperament. Most often, it takes several weeks or months for toddlers to fully adjust to the new sleep schedule. However, consistency and patience are essential for long-term success.
