Writing That Works: A Q&A with Kenneth Roman

Q: What's the secret to writing that works?

A: According to renowned writing coach Kenneth Roman, "The secret is to connect with your reader." This means understanding their needs, interests, and pain points, and then tailoring your writing accordingly.

Q: How can I ensure my writing is clear and concise?

A: Roman advises, "Simplify your language, use active voice, and eliminate unnecessary words." Avoid jargon and technical terms, and strive for clarity and simplicity in your writing.

Q: What's the best way to develop a strong hook?

A: Roman recommends, "Start with a question, a startling fact, or a personal anecdote that grabs the reader's attention and makes them want to read more." Use powerful verbs and vivid imagery to hook your audience.

Q: How can I improve my persuasive writing skills?

A: Roman emphasizes the importance of "using evidence, data, and examples to support your claims." Appeal to the reader's logic and emotions, and provide compelling reasons why they should believe or take action.

Q: What's the most common mistake writers make?

A: Roman states, "The most common mistake is forgetting the reader." Always keep your audience in mind when writing, and ensure that your content is relevant and valuable to them. Remember, writing that works is all about connecting with your reader and delivering a clear, persuasive message.
