Is the Rome series 18+? Be warned, this mini-series is just as casually brutal and profane as Ancient Rome was. I would not let young children watch it, at least not without serious guidance. I will say that it is just plain excellent and well worth your attention. You will be entertained and informed.

Is Kingdom OK for kids? The gist of the game isn't really explained, so you will have to figure it out yourself. Violence isn't gory at all, but it may be scary for kids under the age of 8. The game gets boring after a while and it may take time. It would be a good idea to set up time limits for video games.

Why was Last Kingdom cancelled? While we can speculate over budgetary concerns, or a possible decline in viewership, it turns out that The Last Kingdom's cancellation didn't come as a surprise to the cast or crew. And that's because the plan was to end with season five all along.

Why is The Last Kingdom so good? The masterful mix of political intrigue and action is another reason The Last Kingdom has reached such a level of success. The show is adept at creating complex political conflicts that reflect history, as well as recreating some of the most important battles from this time period.

Why is it called The Last Kingdom? When Alfred the Great was stranded in the Somerset marshes it seemed that Saxon Britain was doomed, and that Alfred's Wessex would be the last Saxon kingdom.
