2014 English Paper 3 Grade 11: Questions and Answers

The English Paper 3 Grade 11 exam in 2014 consisted of two sections: Reading and Writing. The Reading section included two texts, while the Writing section required students to write an essay.

Reading Section

Question 1:

Analyze the techniques used by the author in Text A to create a sense of tension and suspense.

Answer:

The author uses several techniques to create tension and suspense, including:

- Vivid imagery and sensory details that evoke a sense of danger
- Foreshadowing and hints of future events
- Short, choppy sentences that increase the pace and build anticipation
- Unreliable narration that keeps the reader guessing about the narrator's motives and intentions

Question 2:

Discuss how the characters in Text B relate to the theme of family.

Answer:

The characters in Text B play complex and multifaceted roles within their family relationships. They navigate issues of love, loyalty, and betrayal, highlighting the theme of family as both a source of strength and a potential source of conflict. Each character has their own distinct perspective on family, and their interactions reveal the complexities of family dynamics.
