The Message of Old Testament Promises: Made Mark Dever

Q: What are the Old Testament promises?

A: The Old Testament is replete with promises made by God to His people. These promises cover a wide range of topics, including land, blessing, and salvation. Some of the most well-known promises include:

- The promise of a land to Abraham (Genesis 12:1-3)
- The promise of blessing to all nations through Abraham (Genesis 12:3)
- The promise of a savior who would come from the line of David (Isaiah 9:6-7)

Q: What is the purpose of these promises?

A: The promises made in the Old Testament serve several purposes. They reveal God's love, faithfulness, and sovereignty. They provide hope and encouragement to God's people, especially during times of difficulty. They also point forward to the ultimate fulfillment of God's plan in Jesus Christ.

Q: How are these promises fulfilled in Jesus Christ?

A: Jesus Christ is the fulfillment of all the Old Testament promises. In Him, we inherit the land promised to Abraham. In Him, we receive the blessing promised to all nations. And in Him, we find the long-awaited Savior who would redeem us from sin and death.

Q: What is the significance of these promises for us today?

A: The Old Testament promises are still relevant and meaningful for us today. They remind us of God's love and faithfulness. They give us hope and encouragement in our own difficult circumstances. And they point us to Jesus Christ, who is the ultimate fulfillment of God's plan.

Q: How can we apply these promises to our own lives?

A: We can apply the Old Testament promises to our own lives by believing them, praying about them, and living in light of them. When we believe these promises, we can trust in God's love and faithfulness. When we pray about them, we can seek God's help in fulfilling them. And when we live in light of them, we can experience the joy and peace that come from knowing that God is with us and has a plan for our lives.
