What is the plot of the Elminster making of a mage? Plot summary Elminster – The Making of a Mage covers from his first encounter with magic as a young boy, to his days as a rebel fighter, to his nights as a thief, then on to his life following Mystra. It is the first real insight into why Elminster is "Elminster".

What is the story of Elminster? The novel is told as a series of snapshots in his past, looking at how he spent time as a thief before being trained in magic by the elves and (then) a powerful sorceress until he became a great mage himself—strong enough to take down those who subjected his kingdom. For Elminster is also a prince.

Is Elminster just Gandalf? In the Io9 series revisiting older Dungeons & Dragons novels, Rob Bricken describes Elminster as "the most powerful, important, and smartest wizard in the Forgotten Realms, and one of the setting's most important characters [...] more Merlin than Gandalf, which makes him less enigmatic and prone to tomfoolery than ...

Did Mystra turn Elminster into a woman? She tarried with him and left the awestruck Elminster with the message that he should learn of magic and worship her. Soon thereafter, while he was still a young adult, Mystra transformed Elminster into a woman named Elmara to strengthen his bond with magic and to know what it is to be a woman.

What race is Elminster?

Who is more powerful Raistlin or Elminster? While Raistlin was still mortal though, Elminster was absolutely the more powerful wizard. What powers does Elminster have? Chosen Powers As one of Mystra's chosen, Elminster was granted numerous spell-like abilities, including resistances and immunities to a myriad of spells. He also had the ability to wield the goddess's silver fire, and channel spellfire—pure raw energy taken directly from the Weave itself.

What does Elminster smoke? Elminster's ever-smoking pipe was activated and deactivated by command words given by any creature directly touching it. Once lit, the pipe automatically refilled its supply of tobacco or pipeweed by using the Drawmij's instant summons spell, teleporting the weed from a known store.

Who killed Mystra Forgotten Realms? According to the Forgotten Realms Campaign Guide (2008), Mystra has been murdered by Cyric, and is no longer part of the Pantheon. Her death initiated the Spellplague, which is the direct cause of most of the changes Toril has undergone between editions.

Is Elminster a Planeswalker? Also known as the "Sage of Shadowdale" and the "Old Mage", Elminster is one of the most famous and powerful wizards in all of Faerûn, as well as a fair fighter and thief. Unlike planeswalkers in Magic lore, as a D&D character, he does not have a planeswalker's spark.

What happens if you don't talk to Elminster? If the party somehow manages to avoid contact with him, Elminster will stay there until the end of the story, leading to odd talks and journal entries if spoken to during later chapters.

Did Elminster sleep with Mystra? ladydulazy said: Elminster slept with Mystra in the end of the first book. She appeared before him as a mortal woman and trained him. He fell in love with her, then she seduced him as Mystra, then she asked Elminster to become her Chosen, to which he agreed without question.

Does Ed Greenwood own the Forgotten Realms? He began writing articles about the Forgotten Realms for Dragon magazine beginning in 1979, and subsequently sold the rights to the setting to TSR, the creators of the Dungeons & Dragons roleplaying game, in 1986.
