

THE HOBBIT QUESTION BY CHAPTER

Download Complete File

What was Bilbo's unfair question in The Hobbit? In the end, Bilbo wins through a bit of trickery. Referring to the ring he had found, he asks, "What have I got in my pocket?" and Gollum cannot guess the right answer.

Why is Chapter 6 of The Hobbit called out of the frying pan into the fire? What is Chapter 6 of The Hobbit called? The title of Chapter of The Hobbit is "Out of the Frying-Pan into the Fire." It is a reference to a line spoken by Bilbo in the chapter when he says, "Escaping goblins to be caught by wolves!"

What chapter are the riddles in The Hobbit? Riddles in the Dark is the 5th chapter in The Hobbit. In 1951 Allen and Unwin published a second edition of The Hobbit in which J.R.R. Tolkien substantially revised this chapter to bring the story of the ring and the character Gollum more into line with the forthcoming "New Hobbit".

What is Chapter 7 of The Hobbit about? Summary: Chapter 7 Beorn is a half-man, half-bear creature who has a great wooden house in the middle of the woods outside Mirkwood. Gandalf takes the dwarves to Beorn's house a few at a time, so as not to startle him. He tells Beorn the story of their adventure in the mountain.

Why did Bilbo betray the dwarves? Bilbo's motivations for defecting to the enemy camp are twofold. First, he realizes that the best way out of the conflict is a peaceful one. Second, despite his friendship with the dwarves, Bilbo feels more of a natural camaraderie with elves (and, to a lesser extent, with men) than with dwarves.

What is Bilbo's regret in Chapter 12? What is Bilbo's regret in Chapter 12? Bilbo regrets giving himself the nickname "Barrel-Rider." The nickname gives Smaug a clue that Bilbo and company had help from the people of Lake Town, and Smaug flies off that way at the end of the chapter.

What might Bilbo's dream at the end of chapter 6 foreshadow? Bilbo ends the chapter in an almost childlike state, too weak to help make dinner. His dream might symbolize the rapid changes he's experienced recently. Though he continues to occasionally and almost reflexively miss his home, he's gradually forgetting what he misses about it as he becomes more familiar with travel.

What did Bilbo steal in Chapter 9? In Chapter 9 of The Hobbit, the burglar Bilbo takes the elf guard's keys, enabling him to free all of the dwarves from their cells. Though a minor plot point towards the chapter's end, Bilbo also manages to steal food once the barrels have been roped together for the night.

Why did Thorin throw Bilbo out of his camp? Bilbo the Outcast Thorin is even angrier when he finds out that Bilbo sold him out and gave the Arkenstone to his enemies. He's about to throw Bilbo off the gate to his death when Gandalf shows up to negotiate a little more aggressively.

What does Smaug call his breath? "My armour is like tenfold shields, my teeth are swords, my claws spears, the shock of my tail is a thunderbolt, my wings a hurricane, and my breath death!" ? Smaug to Bilbo Baggins -The Hobbit, "Inside Information."

What is the eye riddle Hobbit? "That eye is like to this eye" Said the first eye, "But in low place Not in high place." (H, v, 122). The answer to this riddle from The Hobbit is "sun on the daisies." The "eye in a blue face" refers to the sun in the blue sky, while the "eye in a green face" is a flower in a field.

What is the hidden passage in The Hobbit? The hidden passage was a long indoor tunnel leading to the Great Hall of Thráin, the lair of Smaug in the Lonely Mountain.

What is Chapter 5 of The Hobbit? What happened in chapter 5 of The Hobbit? Bilbo wakes up after the party escapes from the goblins and gets separated from the others. he finds the creature Gollum and wins a game of riddles to make Gollum lead him outside. However, Gollum attacks and Bilbo uses a magic ring he found to turn invisible and escape.

What is Chapter 8 about in The Hobbit? Bilbo dozes off, dreaming of dinner. He awakes to find himself bound up by the sticky threads spun by a giant spider. With some difficulty, he frees himself and kills the spider with his sword. He passes out from the exertion and when he regains consciousness, he finds that he feels much braver.

What happened in chapter 10 of hobbit? Bilbo helps the dwarves out of the barrels. Thorin, with Fili, Kili, and Bilbo, confronts the town guards and announces that he, the King under the Mountain, has returned and wishes to be taken to their Master. They discover the Master feasting with elves, who recognize their former prisoners.

Did Thorin forgive Bilbo? The biggest blow to the dwarves is that their king Thorin lies mortally wounded. He forgives Bilbo before dying and lets Bilbo know that he was right all along. Thorin is replaced by Dain as king, Bard rebuilds his town, and Gandalf and Bilbo head for home.

Why does Thorin hate Bilbo? Why does Thorin dislike Bilbo? Thorin and Bilbo have worldviews that are diametrically opposed. Hobbits value the comforts of home and festivity, while dwarves seek riches and battle. Throughout their journey, Thorin continues to undermine Bilbo, despite Thorin's own lack of preparedness and clear leadership views.

Did Bilbo turn evil? Bilbo doesn't go out of his way to do evil — he doesn't go out of his way to do anything overtly evil or wrong or bad. He is mostly a victim of circumstance and bad timing. However there is a quote — the only thing that is required for evil to triumph is for good men to do nothing.

Why is Bilbo afraid in Chapter 16? Thorin is still desperate to find the Arkenstone gem, which Bilbo still has hidden away. Bilbo is afraid that he'll face a heavy punishment if the dwarves figure out that he has the gem inside of his pillow, but he can't tell them that he has it.

Why is Ralph crying at the end of Chapter 12? Ralph cries at the end of the chapter over the loss of Piggy, who he considered a "true, wise friend," though he frequently failed to show it. Upon finding out that they have been rescued, Ralph is overcome with emotion and finally allows himself to cry.

Why is Bilbo unhappy at the end of Chapter 10? Why is Bilbo unhappy? Bilbo is unhappy because they are getting closer to the mountain and he has to soon go in. What does the Elvenking think will happen to the dwarves? He believes the dwarves won't make it and the dragon will kill them.

What was Bilbo's main conflict? In The Hobbit, the primary external conflict is the quest to reclaim the Lonely Mountain (while many minor external conflicts include Gollum, the orcs, and the spiders), and the primary internal conflict is Bilbo's adventurous spirit (his 'Took' side) and his desire to be home and comfortable (his 'Baggins' side).

What question did Bilbo ask Gollum? Gollum: What has roots as nobody sees, is taller than trees, up, up, up it goes, and yet, never grows? 2. Bilbo: Thirty white horses on a red hill. First they champ, then they stamp, then they stand still.

Is Bilbo greedy in The Hobbit? Bilbo provides a more moderate example of the effect of greed. He can occasionally be swayed by the lust for riches, as anyone might be, but he ultimately has a better sense of perspective, quickly sensing the hollowness of the opulence around him.

Why is Bilbo unhappy in Chapter 10? Bilbo is very unhappy about leaving Lake-town and heading to the Lonely Mountain. Having exercised great bravery and cleverness in helping the dwarves escape from the Elvenking's prison, Bilbo now seems to revert to his milder hobbit nature in his unhappiness about going on to the Lonely Mountain and Smaug the dragon.

Teachers also serve as role models and mentors, providing guidance and support to students as they navigate the challenges of adolescence and emerging adulthood.

2. How does the social status of teachers vary across societies?

The social status of teachers varies widely across different societies and time periods. In some societies, teachers are highly respected and well-compensated, while in others they may face low status and low pay. Factors that can influence the social status of teachers include the educational system, the cultural values of the society, and the economic conditions of the country.

3. What are the challenges faced by schoolteachers?

Schoolteachers face a range of challenges, including:

- Insufficient resources: Teachers often work with limited budgets and lack access to essential materials and equipment.
