However, it becomes symbolic of Gatsby's inability to fully reach the American dream as his life unravels.

What does Tom symbolize in The Great Gatsby? Tom is a character with few redeeming qualities. Why do you think Daisy sobs when Gatsby shows her his shirt? Daisy isn't really talking about—or weeping over—the shirts from England. Her strong emotional reaction comes from the excitement of Gatsby having the proper wealth, and perhaps remorse over the complexity of the situation; he is finally a man she could marry, but she is already wed to Tom.

What is ironic about Dan Cody? In The Great Gatsby, Dan Cody left money to Gatsby, who never gets it because of Cody's wife, who turns out to be untrustworthy. The irony is that Cody wasn't careful and clearly did not see this betrayal coming, which seems odd for a man who was clearly shrewd enough to make millions in business.

Why does Tom immediately sense that Gatsby is a bootlegger? Answer and Explanation: In chapter six of The Great Gatsby, Tom assumes that Gatsby is a bootlegger. He seems to sense this because of Gatsby's wealth. Tom, who is from old money, tells Nick that "a lot of these newly rich people are just big bootleggers."
