What does be quick but not in a hurry mean? “Be quick, but don't hurry.” For Wooden, this maxim meant that his players needed to make quick decisions and move deliberately, but not to rush, as that was when unforced errors could occur.

Who said "be quick but don't hurry"? “Be quick but don't hurry” was a frequent phrase Coach John Wooden used at basketball practice, and it has great application to all phases of everyday life. Andy Hill, author of Be Quick- But Don't Hurry, put it this way when he spoke at the first John R.

What does God say about being in a hurry? Rather than rushing from one task to the next and ending the day with disappointment, frustration, and anxiety, let us “lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith” (Hebrews 12:1–2).

What is the difference between quick and hurry? "Hurry" implies urgency or haste, whereas "quick" emphasizes speed and promptness. "Hurry" is often motivated by a sense of pressure or stress, whereas quickness is not necessarily accompanied by pressure. "Hurry" can lead to mistakes or errors, while quickness can result in either an accurate outcome or errors.

What is John Wooden's famous quote? "Do not let what you cannot do interfere with what you can do." "Don't measure yourself by what you have accomplished, but by what you should have accomplished with your ability." "It's not so important who starts the game but who finishes it." "It's what you learn after you know it all that counts."

What does the Bible say about being quick? James 1:19-20 New American Standard Bible - NASB 1995 (NASB1995) This you know, my beloved brethren. But everyone must be quick to hear, slow to speak and slow to anger; for the anger of man does not achieve the righteousness of God.

Why does God want you to fast? Fasting releases God's supernatural power. It is a tool we can use when there is opposition to God's will. Satan would like nothing better than to cause division, discouragement, defeat, depression, and doubt among us. United prayer and fasting has always been used by God to deal a decisive blow to the enemy!

What is the fast that God wants? No, this is the fast I desire: To unlock the fetters of wickedness, and untie the cords of the yoke to let the oppressed go free; to break off every yoke. It is to share your bread with the hungry, and to take the wretched poor into your home; when you see the naked, to clothe him, and not to ignore your own kin."
