What reading level is Big Pig on a dig?

How high is a pigs IQ? Pigs have the intelligence of a human toddler and are ranked as the fifth most intelligent animal in the world! In fact, pigs are more intelligent and trainable than any breed of dog. They learn their names in just two weeks and come when they're called.

What age level is Animal Farm? This book teaches a very great lesson about communism and the downfall of democarcy. The average kid below fourteen would likely have a very hard time understanding exactly what Orwell was hinting at. This book in terms of plot is very engaging and works its magic even today.

What animal has 25 IQ? Chimpanzee Research on chimpanzees has estimated their IQ between 20 and 25, around the average for a human toddler. They exhibit advanced problem-solving skills, using tools like sticks to extract insects from tree bark or leaves to scoop water.

What is a dolphin's IQ? It's estimated that dolphins have an IQ of around 45, this makes them one of the smartest animals in the world, and probably the smartest animal in the ocean. It's estimated that the dolphin's brain size is almost five times bigger than is usual for a creature of their size.

Who has the highest IQ animal? Topping our list of smartest animals is another great primate, the chimpanzee. The impressive intellectual abilities of this animal have long fascinated humans. Chimps are able to learn sign language to communicate with humans and can remember the name sign for individuals they have not seen for several years.
