What is theology of Christian formation? Christian spiritual formation is the process of being conformed to the image of Jesus Christ for the glory of God and for the sake of others (II Corinthians 3:17-18). The focus of spiritual formation is the Holy Spirit, who guides the ongoing journey towards union with God. The response is submission.

What is the formation of Christian theology Volume 1 The Way to Nicaea? "This first volume treats the initial three centuries of the Christian era. Part I examines the establishment of normative Christianity on the basis of the tradition and canon of the Gospel and briefly sketches the portrait of the Scriptural Christ inscribed in the New Testament.

What was Johns contribution to Christian theology? According to Christian tradition, John is the author of three letters (1 John, 2 John, and 3 John). He is also given credit for writing the fourth biblical narrative of the Gospel and possibly the Revelation to John; however, there has been considerable discussion of the actual identity of the writers of these works.

What is the formation of Christianity? Who started Christianity? The movement was started by Jesus of Nazareth in 1st-century Israel. His followers proclaimed him the predicted messiah of the prophets and became known as Christians (Christianoi, "followers of the Christ).

What is the meaning of theological formation? Theological formation gives us a lens to understand our own spiritual experience; the big questions of life, of meaning and of God; and to dialogue with other wisdom traditions. This helps us live and work for God's way of doing things in the world (Mission).

What is the subject of the Christian formation? Christian formation is the work of God's Holy Spirit in the lives of his people, slowly growing them into the image and character of Jesus. God does this work by renewing our minds, reordering our loves, and redirecting our lives toward the end of glorifying God.

How did the Council of Nicea changed Christianity? The council deemed Arianism a heresy and enshrined the divinity of Christ by invoking the term homoousios (Greek: "of one substance") in a statement of faith known as the Creed of Nicaea.

What two concepts did the Council of Nicaea establish? The Council was called in large part to address Arianism, the teachings of the Bishop Arius of Alexandria that Jesus was not divine, but a created being. The council affirmed an orthodox view of Christ being of both divine and human nature and developed the Nicene Creed, still recited in many churches today.

Did the Council of Nicaea create the Trinity? The word 'trinity' appears nowhere in the Bible; the concept was finalized at the First Council of Nicaea in 325 CE after years of debate.

What was John's main message? The purpose of John's Gospel is that people might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing might have life in his name (20:30-31). Throughout the Gospel, Jesus' words and actions are designed to bring about faith.

Why is John's Gospel so different? So John draws on a different set of traditional sayings of Jesus than do the first three gospels of the New Testament. Jesus in the Gospel of John is difficult to reconstruct as an historical person, because his character in the gospel is in full voice giving very developed theological soliloquies about himself.

What does John's Gospel emphasize? John emphasizes Jesus' unique ability to give eternal life—something only God has the authority to do. He also introduces people to a new life in him.

Did Christianity exist before Jesus? After the death and resurrection of Jesus, Christianity first emerged as a sect of Judaism as practiced in the Roman province of Judea. The first Christians were all Jews, who constituted a Second Temple Jewish sect with an apocalyptic eschatology.

Is Christianity a religion or a faith? Christianity is the most popular religion in the world with over 2,000 million adherents. 42 million Britons see themselves as nominally Christian, and there are 6 million who are actively practising. Christians believe that Jesus was the Messiah promised in the Old Testament.

Did Jesus start Christianity? Of course, there is no way in the world 'Christianity' could exist BEFORE 'Christ' existed. However, Jesus apparently wanted to reform Judaism, not start a brand new religion. The religion of Christianity (the worship of Jesus) did not really develop until a few decades after he died.

What is Christian formation program? Christian Formation (CF) spells the difference of SPUP among the rest of learning institutions. It engages in the development and integration of the three dimensions of Faith (Doctrine, Morals and Worship) in the life of its academic community and stakeholders.

What role does the holy spirit play in Christian formation? The Holy Spirit unites the believer with Christ and places him in the body of Christ, the church. He also unites the believer with Christ in His death, enabling him to live victoriously over sin. The Holy Spirit controls the believer who yields to God and submits himself to God's Word.

What is the theology of faith formation? Education is a critical part of forming the faith of all disciples. To have our faith and life formed by God's love in Christ, we need to know something about the story of God, what it means that God loves us, and how God wants us to act in our daily lives.

What is the theological basis for spiritual formation? Theological Foundation of Spiritual Formation The two main concepts that provide the theological underpinning for spiritual formation is the imago Dei and godly relationships that surround a truly transformed Christian life.
