What to Say When You Talk Yourself Down

By Shad Helmstetter

Talking yourself down can be a destructive habit that can lead to low self-esteem, anxiety, and depression. However, there are things you can say to yourself to help you turn things around.

What is talking yourself down?

Talking yourself down is when you say negative things to yourself. This can include things like:

- "I'm not good enough."
- "I'm a failure."
- "I'm never going to amount to anything."

Why do people talk themselves down?

There are many reasons why people talk themselves down. Some of the most common reasons include:

- Low self-esteem: People with low self-esteem often believe that they are not worthy of love or happiness. This can lead them to talk themselves down as a way of protecting themselves from being hurt.
- Anxiety: Anxiety can make people feel like they are in danger or that they are going to fail. This can lead them to talk themselves down as a way of trying to control their anxiety.
- Depression: Depression can cause people to feel hopeless and worthless. This can lead them to talk themselves down as a way of reflecting their negative mood.

What can I say to myself instead of talking myself down?

If you find yourself talking yourself down, there are a few things you can say to yourself instead. These include:

- Positive affirmations: Positive affirmations are short, positive statements that you can say to yourself to help you change your mindset. Some examples of positive affirmations include:
 - "I am worthy of love and happiness."
 - "I am capable of achieving anything I set my mind to."
 - "I am going to get through this."
- Challenging negative thoughts: When you catch yourself talking yourself down, try to challenge your negative thoughts. Ask yourself if there is any evidence to support your negative thoughts. If not, try to replace your negative thoughts with more positive ones.
- Focusing on the present moment: When you find yourself talking yourself down, try to focus on the present moment. This will help you to avoid dwelling on the past or worrying about the future.

Talking yourself down can be a difficult habit to break, but it is possible. By saying positive things to yourself, challenging your negative thoughts, and focusing on the present moment, you can start to turn things around.
