How to meditate on the word of God Kenneth Hagin?

How to pray by Kenneth Hagin?

What happens when you meditate on God's word? One of the most practical benefits is that constant meditation on God's word results in remembering the truth. Psalm 119:15-16 reads, "I will meditate on your precepts, and fix my eyes on your ways. I will delight in your statutes; I will not forget your word."

What is the prayer before meditating on God's word? Lord give him a desire to live by every word that proceeds out of Your mouth. Lord, our love for Your Word must be birthed in us by Your Spirit; we must be lovers of Your truth, so that like Joshua, we can mediate in Your Word with the same promise of success. I pray in Jesus' name, Amen.

How many hours did Kenneth Hagin pray? Kenneth Hagin could pray in the Spirit for hours as he spent more than 24 hours Praying in the Spirit without stopping. He has multiple of visions of Angels and Jesus has visited him in his house.

What is the prayer of consecration Kenneth Hagin? The prayer of consecration—committing to live a holy life and committing to do the will of God—often seems to be difficult for people. It's not fun to die to our own will, our own ways, and our own desires. There has never been a prayer to match how Jesus prayed in the Garden of Gethsemane.

Can I pray to God directly? Jesus taught us to pray directly to the Father when he gave us the Our Father (Matt. 6:9). But we should understand that our prayers have access to the Father only through Jesus, for he proclaimed, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father, but by me" (John 14:6).

What did Jesus say about meditation? In Matthew 6:5 Jesus taught his disciples to "pray alone and to use few words," which sounds less like prayer (in a pure sense) and more like a basic meditation technique.

Can God talk to you through meditation? Calling to God as light is one of the ways how we can connect to God through meditation. Spend time in meditation gazing intently and with deep devotion at the point between the eyebrows, and you will see and feel His response there.

How does God want you to meditate? The Old Testament calls people to meditate on God's attributes and actions and to meditate on Scripture. Psalm 145 is a poem that describes God's character and his works, and the writer declares that he will meditate on these, musing about them and then telling others about them.

Do you say amen at the beginning of a prayer? Pray on your own and with others. But pray with others too—during worship services, before a meal, and in family prayer. One person usually offers the prayer on behalf of the group while others listen respectfully, think of the words being said, and show their agreement by saying "amen" at the end of the prayer.

How to meditate in bed?

What comes first prayer or meditation? Yes, your prayer before and after meditation can come from within. In meditation, you relax the body, calm the mind and open your heart. Therefore, you can begin by offering a sincere prayer from your heart that can convey your longing for peace, and connectedness with your higher Self.
