What does a multicultural classroom look like? Multicultural classrooms are classrooms that embrace diversity and incorporate ideas, beliefs, or people from different countries and cultural backgrounds. Several cultural perspectives are put together to enable students to get a truly international education.

What is a common challenge in multicultural education? The first challenge is the absence of a common language or lingua franca in such a classroom. Secondly, being representatives of different cultures, the students have their own systems of values and beliefs as well as norms of behaviour. That leads to conflicts among the students and with the teachers.

How do you create a multicultural curriculum? Multicultural Curriculum Resources Try to go above what the textbook has to offer and look for resources to help you. Think about using news and events that pull from the outside world and diverse cultures. Ask students to work on a multicultural project in a background different than their own.

What are the pillars of multicultural education?
