To Post Office Box 1393 Approved by Orange County Board

The Orange County Board of Supervisors has recently approved a proposal to establish a new post office box (PO Box) at 1393 Main Street in the city of Santa Ana. The new PO Box will provide residents and businesses with a convenient and secure location to receive their mail.

Q: What is a post office box? A: A post office box (PO Box) is a private mailbox located at a post office or other designated location. PO Boxes are rented from the United States Postal Service (USPS) and provide a secure and convenient way to receive mail.

Q: Why was a new post office box needed in Santa Ana? A: The new PO Box at 1393 Main Street was approved in response to the increasing demand for mail services in the area. The existing post office in Santa Ana is experiencing high foot traffic and long lines, making it difficult for residents and businesses to receive their mail in a timely manner.

Q: When will the new post office box be available for use? A: The new PO Box is expected to be available for use by the end of the year. The USPS will provide updates on the progress of the construction and opening date.

Q: How much will it cost to rent a post office box? A: The cost of renting a PO Box varies depending on the size and location of the box. Please contact the USPS for current pricing information.

The approval of the new PO Box at 1393 Main Street is a welcome addition to the Santa Ana community. It will provide residents and businesses with a convenient and secure location to receive their mail. For more information about the new PO Box, please visit the USPS website or contact your local post office.
