What happens in chapter 2 of The Great Gatsby? Chapter 2 is mostly about a party that Nick attends. It is hosted at the apartment which Tom rents for secret meetings with his mistress, Myrtle. Myrtle invites her neighbors and sister, and the group gets drunk and converses. Tom and Myrtle have an argument, and Tom breaks Myrtle's nose.

Why did Tom break Myrtle's nose? Tom broke Myrtle's nose because Myrtle kept repeating his wife's, Daisy, name. Judging by his treatment of Myrtle and his wife, his attitude seems to be that he views women as beneath him and he treats them with disrespect. He feels empowered that women are with him for his money.

What do you learn about Nick in chapter 2 of The Great Gatsby? Nick's reserved nature and indecisiveness show in the fact that though he feels morally repelled by the vulgarity and tastelessness of the party, he is too fascinated by it to leave. This contradiction suggests the ambivalence that he feels toward the Buchanans, Gatsby, and the East Coast in general.

What is the valley of ashes in The Great Gatsby chapter 2 quizlet? The Valley of Ashes is the wasteland between the east and west egg. It is where the lower class lives. It symbolizes Wilson and how he is made of ashes because he repairs cars and can't achieve the American dream.

Who is scared of Gatsby in chapter 2? Catherine says she's afraid of Gatsby because she's heard that he's a relative of the German emperor, Kaiser Wilhelm, and everyone agrees that Gatsby is involved in some sort of shifty business.

What does Tom do to Myrtle at the end of chapter 2? She starts to talk about Daisy. Tom cautions Myrtle not to use Daisy's name, but she mocks him by chanting her name. He strikes Myrtle in the face, breaking her nose.

Why does Wilson think Tom killed Myrtle? Answer and Explanation: Wilson believes that Gatsby killed Myrtle because Tom gave him intentionally misleading information. Earlier in the story, Tom stopped by Wilson's garage while driving Gatsby's yellow car, leading Wilson to believe that the car was Tom's.

Why does Tom abuse Myrtle? Tom hits Myrtle because she will not stop saying "Daisy. " In his mind, she is showing him disrespect and challenging his authority, and he refuses to tolerate this kind of behavior from her. This scene reinforces the idea that, beneath his veneer of calm civility, he has a penchant for violence.

Why might Myrtle prefer Tom over her husband? George does not make enough money nor does he have a busy enough social life to keep Myrtle happy. It is Tom's social standing and his financial resources which draw Myrtle to him. With him, she is able to escape her normal life, and she can socialize above the rank of her husband.

Why does Nick get drunk in chapter 2? Nick states that there is a “quality of distortion” to life in New York, and this lifestyle makes him lose his equilibrium, especially early in the novel, as when he gets drunk at Gatsby's party in Chapter 2.

Why is Nick unreliable in chapter 2? In many ways, Nick is an unreliable narrator: he's dishonest about his own shortcomings (downplaying his affairs with other women, as well as his alcohol use), and he doesn't tell us everything he knows about the characters upfront (for example, he waits until Chapter 6 to tell us the truth about Gatsby's origins, even ...

Was Nick in love with Gatsby? In a queer reading of Gatsby, Nick doesn't just love Gatsby, he's in love with him. In some readings, the tragedy is that Gatsby doesn't love him back. In others, Gatsby is as repressed as Nick, each chasing an unavailable woman to avoid admitting what he truly desires.

What reason did Myrtle give for marrying George Wilson in chapter 2? “I married [George] because I thought he was a gentleman,” she said finally. “I thought he knew something about breeding, but he wasn't fit to lick my shoe.” Once Myrtle, Tom, and Nick are away in the city in Chapter 2, Myrtle feels able to speak freely about her disastrous marriage to George Wilson.

What is the irony in Chapter 2 of The Great Gatsby? Explanation: In The Great Gatsby, Chapter 2, Myrtle speaks in a very condescending way about the lower-class servants, such as the boy she had told to bring the ice. The irony is that Myrtle herself is not a member of the upper class, but rather is married to a man who runs a shabby garage in the Valley of Ashes.

Why can't Tom divorce Daisy? Myrtle believes that the only reason Tom will not divorce Daisy is because Daisy is Catholic. But we learn that Tom's feelings for Myrtle are far less intense than he has led her to believe and that social pressure prevents him from ever leaving Daisy, who comes from a similar upper-class background.

What does Nick learn about Gatsby in chapter 2? Meanwhile, Catherine tells Nick that she's been to a party at Gatsby's house. According to her, Gatsby is so rich because he is Kaiser Wilhelm's cousin. Catherine then tells Nick that both Tom and Myrtle hate the people they're married to; she wonders why they don't divorced and marry each other instead.

What is told about Gatsby in chapter 2? At one of these parties, Nick has a conversation with Jordan Baker, a friend of Daisy Buchanan, who tells him some rumors about Gatsby. Jordan reveals that Gatsby is rumored to be the son of wealthy parents, a war hero, and a man who is known to have relationships with many women.

How does chapter 2 of The Great Gatsby relate to money? The characters are distinguished by their wealth and where they live. East Egg reflects high class society or “old money”, and the people of West Egg are wealthy and refer to “new money”. Social status and wealth defines a character and their happiness.

Did Nick and Mr. McKee sleep together? The ellipsis that is placed at the end of the elevator scene has almost as much impact on the story as if Fitzgerald had explicitly states that Nick and Mr. McKee slept together, if one were to read it that way. The ellipsis in itself is an innuendo for having a sexual encounter.

Why did Tom hit Myrtle? Tom hits Myrtle because she refused to obey him, but also in defense of Daisy; he feels strongly about both women. Tom's outburst therefore shows that he has difficulty handling complex emotions.

Does Tom know who killed Myrtle? Tom realises that it was Gatsby's car that struck and killed Myrtle. Back at Daisy and Tom's home, Gatsby tells Nick that Daisy was driving the car that killed Myrtle but he will take the blame.

What happens to Nick at the end of chapter 2? Nick leaves the party and goes home with McKee, the photographer. The narrative gets harder and harder to follow as Nick's inebriation really catches up with him. Nick somehow ends up at the train station, waiting for the 4 am train to get back to West Egg.

What rumor about Gatsby is revealed in chapter 2? The first rumor that Nick Carraway hears regarding his enigmatic, affluent neighbor, Jay Gatsby, takes place in chapter two when he visits Tom Buchanan's apartment in the city. During the party, Catherine tells Nick that she heard Gatsby is the nephew or cousin of Kaiser Wilhelm.

How does chapter 2 of The Great Gatsby relate to money? The characters are distinguished by their wealth and where they live. East Egg reflects high class society or "old money", and the people of West Egg are wealthy and refer to "new money". Social status and wealth defines a character and their happiness.
