ANSWERS ACT 2

Download Complete File

What actually happens in Act 2 of Hamlet? Act 2 scene 2 Polonius suggests the king and queen spy on Hamlet as he talks to him. Hamlet speaks in riddles, suggesting that he is mad, though his speech also contains hidden meanings which Polonius picks up on. Rosencrantz and Guildenstern enter and Hamlet reveals that he knows they were sent to spy on him.

Why is Hamlet upset in Act 2? In a soliloquy, Hamlet laments his inability to take action against his father's murderer while an actor can stir such emotion in a performance. He curses himself and despises his inaction, frustrated that he can't summon the necessary fury to kill Claudius.

Why is Act 2 Scene 2 important in Hamlet? In Hamlet Act 2 Scene 2, the King asks Rosencrantz and Guildenstern to spy on Hamlet; the King and Queen (wrongly) conclude that Ophelia is the cause of Hamlet's madness. Hamlet figures out Rosencrantz and Guildenstern's plan, and Hamlet concocts a plan to catch Claudius, using the players.

Why does Polonius set off to see the king? Polonius decides that Hamlet has been made insane by Ophelia's refusing to see him. Polonius rushes off to tell the king. Act 2, scene 2 Claudius and Gertrude set Rosencrantz and Guildenstern, two boyhood friends of Hamlet, to spy on him.

Why is Hamlet depressed in Act 2? Hamlet has legitimate reason for unhappiness: his stepfather, King Claudius, had murdered Hamlet's father.

Is Hamlet truly mad in Act 2? Shakespeare left many things up to interpretation, but this isn't one of them. Hamlet's madness is feigned—not real.

Why was Hamlet upset in Scene 2? In Act 1, Scene 2, Hamlet is still deeply mourning his father's death, even though his mother Gertrude and stepfather King Claudius wish him to stop. Hamlet is also angry about the marriage of Gertrude (his mother) to Claudius (his father's brother) shortly after the death of his father.

Why is Ophelia upset in Act 2? Once Reynaldo has departed, Ophelia arrives. She is upset by a recent interaction she had with Hamlet. He entered her room in a state of undress, grabbed her by the wrist, and would not let go until she physically resisted. He did not speak to her.

What is Hamlet's mental state in Act 2? He is mad only some of the time and at other times is sane. Polonius enters to announce the arrival of the players, who follow him into the room. Hamlet welcomes them and entreats one of them to give him a speech about the fall of Troy and the death of the Trojan king and queen, Priam and Hecuba.

What does the sun symbolize in Hamlet Act 2? SARAH: There's also a subtle reference here to the fact that Ophelia is in danger of getting pregnant from Hamlet himself — the sun is a symbol traditionally associated with royalty, and, of course, Prince Hamlet is the "son" of old King Hamlet.

Why is Ophelia frightened of Hamlet in Act 2? Ophelia explains that Hamlet grabbed her wrist and stared at her intensely before leaving. Ophelia fears that Hamlet truly loves her. Polonius suggests they inform Claudius of Hamlet's behavior towards her.

What is Hamlet's emotional state in Act 2 Scene 2? Hamlet's self-disgust Hamlet's soliloquy at the end of the scene reveals his feelings of self-disgust as he reproaches himself for his lack of “passion”. His doubts are revealed in his self-questioning (“Am I a coward?”) and self-mockery (dismissing himself as a “John-a-dreams” incapable of decisive action).

What does Hamlet's soliloquy in Act 2 mean? This speech indicates the level of negativity to which Hamlet has fallen. He is haunted by his father's death, tormented by his mother's marriage to Claudius, and infuriated by his inability to change either event.

Why is Polonius killed? Act 3, scene 4 In Gertrude's room, Polonius hides behind a tapestry. Hamlet's entrance so alarms Gertrude that she cries out for help. Polonius echoes her cry, and Hamlet, thinking Polonius to be Claudius, stabs him to death.

Why is Fortinbras mentioned again in Act 2? Why is Fortinbras mentioned again? ? Fortinbras is mentioned again because he acts as a 'foil' or a contrary opposition to Hamlet.

What happens during Act 2 of Hamlet? Act II. Polonius sends a spy, Reynaldo, to France to keep an eye on Laertes. Ophelia enters and tells Polonius that Hamlet entered her room in a mad state, grabbing her wrists and staring wildly into her eyes. She also adds that she has cut off all contact with Hamlet.

Why is Hamlet so cautious in Act 2? In act 2, Hamlet is not sure if this ghost is telling the truth because he could be the devil in disguise, so he devises a plan to make sure Claudius is guilty. Referring to his plan Hamlet states, "The play's the thing / Wherein I'll catch the conscience of the King" (II.

What is the rising action of Hamlet Act 2? For the whole of the second act—the play's rising action—Hamlet delays his revenge by pretending to be mad. We learn from Ophelia that Hamlet is behaving as if he is mad with love for her. We see him make fun of Polonius by talking nonsense which contains half-hidden jokes at Polonius's expense.

Who betrayed Hamlet in Act 2? R+G are willing to betray Hamlet due to the need to conform to the hierarchy within Denmark. Act 2, Scene 2. Guildenstern. R+G's betrayal of Hamlet to serve Claudius.

Why does Hamlet reject Ophelia? Hamlet is cruel to Ophelia because he has transferred his anger at Gertrude's marriage to Claudius onto Ophelia. In fact, Hamlet's words suggest that he transfers his rage and disgust for his mother onto all women.

Why did Ophelia go mad? Ophelia likely went mad because of the death of her father. There are other reasons in the play, like Hamlet's anger and her brother's absence. But, Hamlet murdering her father, Polonius, is most likely where she breaks down.

What usually happens in Act 2? Act Two is the meat of your story, the heart of your character's journey of change. It's where you brilliantly deliver your story's point by showing how your character's flawed internal obstacle is holding them back. As the character changes, so will your readers.

What happens in Act 2 of a story? Act two is ultimately where the big change in your story occurs. This act needs to keep your story moving towards the climax. However, it needs to do so naturally and without rushing to the conclusion. Act two is generally much more freeform.

What happens in Act 2 Scene 2 summary? Act 2, Scene 2 Summary: Romeo stands below Juliet's balcony, marveling at her beauty. Not knowing he's there, Juliet speaks, wondering why Romeo must be a Montague, and she a Capulet. She thinks a name is simply a word, and it would be easy for Romeo to take a new name, and therefore not be forbidden to her.

What happens in Act 2 of Shakespeare? Act II. Romeo lingers near the Capulet house to talk with Juliet when she appears in her window. The pair declare their love for one another and intend to marry the next day. With the help of Juliet's Nurse, the lovers arrange to marry when Juliet goes for confession at the cell of Friar Laurence.

The 12-Item General Health Questionnaire (GHQ-12)

The GHQ-12 is a widely used screening tool for mental health problems in general populations. It is a self-administered questionnaire that consists of 12 items that assess symptoms of psychological distress over the past few weeks.

Questions

1. Have you recently been feeling very nervous and strung-up?
2. Have you recently been finding it difficult to wind down?
3. Have you recently felt downhearted and blue?

4. Have you recently been finding life very tiring?
5. Have you recently lost interest in the things you used to enjoy?
6. Have you recently been feeling restless and unable to keep still?
7. Have you recently been feeling so unhappy that you have been thinking of giving up?
8. Have you recently felt that life isn't worth living?
9. Have you recently been finding it difficult to make up your mind?
10. Have you recently been finding it difficult to make decisions?
11. Have you recently been feeling worthless?
12. Have you recently been feeling that life is meaningless?

Answers

Each item is answered on a 4-point Likert scale:

- 0 = Not at all
- 1 = No more than usual
- 2 = Rather more than usual
- 3 = Much more than usual

Scoring

The total score is calculated by summing the scores for all 12 items. A score of 4 or more is considered to indicate possible psychological distress.

Interpretation

The GHQ-12 is often used as a screening tool to identify individuals who may benefit from further mental health assessment and support. However, it is important to note that it is not a diagnostic tool and a positive score does not necessarily mean that an individual has a mental health disorder.

Limitations

The GHQ-12 is a self-report measure and may be influenced by factors such as social desirability and recall bias. Additionally, it is not sensitive to all types of psychological distress, such as substance use disorders or eating disorders.
