50 Essays: A Portable Anthology, 3rd Edition Answers

1. Question: What is the main argument of Virginia Woolf's essay "A Room of One's Own"? Answer: Woolf argues that to write great literature, women need both financial independence and a space of their own where they can create.

2. Question: In James Baldwin's essay "Notes of a Native Son," what is the author's relationship to his father? Answer: Baldwin's relationship with his father is complex and fraught with both love and resentment. He struggles to understand his father's alcoholism and abusive behavior.

3. Question: What is the central conflict in Jonathan Swift's essay "A Modest Proposal"? Answer: Swift's essay satirizes the Irish famine by proposing that the Irish should sell their children as food to the wealthy English. The conflict arises from the disparity between the narrator's seemingly logical and heartless solution and the shocking implications it reveals.

4. Question: How does Maya Angelou use metaphor in her essay "Still I Rise"? Answer: Angelou uses metaphors to convey her resilience and determination in the face of adversity. Examples include "rising like dust" and "bringing the gifts that my ancestors gave."

5. Question: In David Sedaris's essay "Me Talk Pretty One Day," what is the author's experience with learning French? Answer: Sedaris's essay humorously recounts his struggles with learning French as an adult. He describes the challenges of grammar, pronunciation, and cultural misunderstandings with wit and self-deprecation.
