Sunday 0:00

In the dead of night, as the clock struck midnight, a solitary figure entered the dimly lit diner. Despite the late hour, the air crackled with anticipation as the customer approached the counter.

5:00

With a voice as smooth as molasses, the customer placed their order: "I'll have the beef, please."

At the Counter

The waitress, her eyes heavy with exhaustion, dutifully repeated the order. "Beef, got it."

Please

As the customer waited for their meal, they couldn't help but wonder why they had chosen to visit this diner at such an ungodly hour. Perhaps it was the allure of the warm glow that emanated from the windows, or the promise of a hearty meal to soothe their weary souls.

Beef

Finally, the order arrived, a steaming plate of tender beef smothered in gravy. As they savored each bite, the customer felt a sense of contentment wash over them. The diner may have been empty, but the food was just what they needed to end their long and eventful day.
