The Sindh Sales Tax Act 2010: Questions and Answers

Introduction

The Sindh Sales Tax Act 2010, administered by the Sindh Revenue Board (SRB), is a comprehensive tax law that governs the levy, collection, and administration of sales tax within the province of Sindh, Pakistan. Here are some frequently asked questions and answers about the Act:

Q1: Who is liable to pay sales tax under this Act?

A1: Any registered or unregistered person who makes a taxable supply of goods or services within the province of Sindh is liable to pay sales tax.

Q2: What is the rate of sales tax in Sindh?

A2: The standard rate of sales tax in Sindh is 16%. However, certain goods and services are exempt from sales tax, while others are taxed at reduced rates.

Q3: What are the responsibilities of a registered dealer under the Act?

A3: Registered dealers are required to maintain proper records of their sales and purchases, file sales tax returns on time, and pay the assessed sales tax within the prescribed time frame. They must also prominently display their Certificate of Registration and maintain the books and records for inspection by SRB officials.

Q4: What are the consequences of non-compliance with the Act?

A4: Non-compliance with the Sindh Sales Tax Act 2010 can lead to penalties, fines, and imprisonment. SRB has the authority to audit dealers, conduct raids and inspections, and seize goods if there is a reason to believe that sales tax has been evaded.

Q5: Who can I contact for further information or assistance?

A5: For further information or assistance regarding the Sindh Sales Tax Act 2010, you can contact the Sindh Revenue Board's website, email srb@sindh.gov.pk, or call their helpline at 021-99201791-2-3.
