21st Century Essential Guide to HUD Programs and Housing Grants (Volume Two)

Major Programs: Housing for the Elderly (Section 202) and Disabled (Section 811), Homeless Assistance Applications

Q&A

1. What is Section 202 housing?

Section 202 is a HUD program that provides rental housing and supportive services to low-income elderly people aged 62 or older.

2. What is Section 811 housing?

Section 811 is a HUD program that provides rental housing and supportive services to non-elderly people with disabilities who have income within certain limits.

3. Who is eligible for Section 202 and Section 811 housing?

To be eligible, applicants must meet income limits, age or disability criteria, and other program requirements.

4. How do I apply for Section 202 or Section 811 housing?

Contact your local Public Housing Authority (PHA) to obtain an application and learn about waitlists and availability.

5. What is homeless assistance?

Homeless assistance programs provide housing, shelter, and supportive services to people who are homeless or at risk of becoming homeless. Examples include emergency shelters, transitional housing, and rapid re-housing.

6. How do I apply for homeless assistance?

Contact local homeless service providers or your local Continuum of Care (CoC) to learn about available programs and how to apply.
