World Politics: Trends and Transformation in 2012-2013

In the 14th edition of their seminal work, "World Politics: Trends and Transformation," Charles W. Kegley and the late Eugene R. Wittkopf present a comprehensive analysis of the global political landscape in 2012-2013. The book examines major trends and challenges shaping world politics, offering insights and predictions for the future.

Question 1: What are the key trends driving global politics in the 21st century?

Answer: Kegley and Wittkopf identify several key trends shaping world politics: globalization, the rise of new powers, the growing importance of non-state actors, increasing global interdependence, and the spread of democratic norms.

Question 2: How has the rise of new powers, such as China and India, impacted the global balance of power?

Answer: The rise of new powers has challenged the long-standing dominance of the United States and Europe. These emerging powers are asserting their political and economic influence, leading to a more multipolar world order.

Question 3: What role do non-state actors, such as multinational corporations and non-governmental organizations (NGOs), play in global politics?

Answer: Non-state actors have become increasingly influential in shaping global affairs. They participate in international organizations, lobby for policy changes, and provide assistance in areas such as development, humanitarian aid, and environmental protection.

Question 4: How has globalization affected the interdependence of nations?

Answer: Globalization has created a deeply interconnected world, where events in one region can have significant impacts on others. This interdependence has led to increased cooperation, but also heightened tensions and vulnerabilities.

Question 5: What are the challenges facing the spread of democratic norms worldwide?

Answer: While democratic practices have gained traction in many parts of the world, they continue to face challenges. Kegley and Wittkopf discuss authoritarian resistance, economic inequality, ethnic conflict, and the rise of populist movements as obstacles to democratic consolidation.
