What is the symbol of the core of Jeet Kune Do? Bruce Lee's core JKD symbol of a small circle with an arrow pointing toward it and away from it visually encapsulates his central philosophical tenet of "no way as way." It illustrates the need to flow in any direction required by the situation, bound by no single approach, doctrine, or ideology.

What is the motto of Jeet Kune Do? The Chinese characters mean: "Using no way as way" and "Having no limitation as limitation". The arrows represent the endless interaction between yin and yang. The core of Jeet Kune Do is the interception of the opponent, making corresponding responses or counterattacks that strike at incoming attacks.

Why is Jeet Kune Do not in UFC? Some of the tools taught in Jeet Kune Do are banned in competitive fighting because it's intended to be used against an attacker in a self-defense situation and can really do terrible damage.

How many years to learn Jeet Kune Do? All depends on your dedication and ability to learn and apply. If you train diligently, honestly and effectively, I would say you can be a functional JKD fighter within 2 years. That's how long it took me and I was 23 when I started. I now have 15 years of JKD under my belt.

Which is better Jeet Kune Do or Hapkido? Either or both. JKD will give you an advantage over an attacker. Hapkido will give you an advantage over an attacker. There are many martial arts out there, enough for a person to find the one that fits their physical build, philosophy, and mindset.
