An essential question to guide students' reading Of Mice and Men might be one of the following: What do we owe to a friend? Are there limits about what we should do for a friend?

What is Chapter 1 Of Mice and Men about? In Chapter 1, the reader learns that George and Lennie are migrant laborers who travel together. Is Lenny from Of Mice and Men autistic? Of Mice and Men is a story about an intellectually disabled man. Lennie's disability is central to the plot; if he were not intellectually disabled, the story would simply not work. It has also been suggested (Loftis, 2015, 2016) that Lennie exhibits characteristics of autism.

What is the deeper meaning of Of Mice and Men? Like many of Steinbeck's works, Of Mice and Men is a story about the nature of poverty, the death of the American Dream, and the lack of control that individuals have over their own lives.

Why did George shoot Lennie? Answer and Explanation: The reason George shoots Lennie at the end of Of Mice and Men is because Lennie killed Curley's wife. If George did not shoot Lennie, the large man would either be shot in the stomach by Curley, a slow and painful death, or locked up in an institution.

What is Chapter 3 Of Mice and Men about? In chapter 3 of "Of Mice and Men," George makes Lennie return a puppy he was hiding in his coat. Candy reluctantly allows Carlson to kill his dog because the dog smells. George, Lennie, and Candy discuss buying a farm together. Curley and Slim are angry with each other because Curley thinks Slim has been with his wife.

Why did Aunt Clara stop giving Lennie mice? Aunt Clara used to give Lennie mice to pet. Lennie loved the mice because they were soft. However, Aunt Clara had to stop giving them to him because he would accidentally kill them from petting them too hard.

Why isn't crooks allowed in the bunkhouse? The stable hand is not allowed in the bunkhouse because he is black. When he has an opportunity to wield some power of his own and hurt someone else as he has been hurt, Crooks takes the opportunity by picking on Lennie. What does Chapter 2 Of Mice and Men talk about? In Chapter 2 of Of Mice and Men, George and Lennie arrive at the ranch they are going to work on, and they go to the bunkhouse. Why is Lennie scared in Chapter 2? When George says that Curley's wife seems like a "tramp," Lennie responds that he thinks she is "purty," causing George to warn Lennie to keep away from her, just like he's supposed to keep away from Curley.
