Through controlled breathing techniques, practitioners can harness the power of breath to stimulate healing, enhance vitality, and foster inner wisdom.

What is the Tibetan Yoga of Breath?

The Tibetan Yoga of Breath revolves around mastering the rhythm, depth, and retention of breath. By focusing on the breath, practitioners develop greater awareness of their present moment and cultivate mindfulness. As the mind becomes calmer and more focused, the practice facilitates the emergence of insights, creativity, and a deeper understanding of the nature of reality.

- 5-Element Breathing: Visualizes the breath passing through different elements (earth, water, air, fire, ether) to cultivate harmony and balance within the body and mind.

How Can I Begin Practicing?

To incorporate the Tibetan Yoga of Breath into your routine, it is recommended to seek guidance from a qualified teacher.
