What questions are unanswered in The Great Gatsby? There are so many tantalising questions that lie unanswered. Some must remain so — for example, would Tom ever have sold Wilson a car? Who was Owl-eyes? Whose teeth are on Wolfshiem's cuffs?

What are discussion questions for The Great Gatsby?

Why doesn't Nick Judge Gatsby harshly? Why doesn't Nick judge Gatsby harshly? Nick is in love with Gatsby. Gatsby embodies everything that Nick admires about the human spirit. Nick is attracted to Gatsby's personality.

What college does Gatsby claim to have attended? After the Allied Powers signed an armistice with Imperial Germany, Gatsby resided in the United Kingdom in 1919 where he briefly attended Trinity College, Oxford. While there, he received a letter from Daisy, informing him that she had married Thomas "Tom" Buchanan, a wealthy Chicago businessman.

Did Daisy really love Tom? Though Gatsby insisted that Daisy never loved Tom, Daisy admitted that she loved both Tom and Gatsby. The confrontation ended with Daisy leaving with Gatsby in his yellow car, while Tom departed with Nick and Jordan.

Why did Daisy marry Tom? Why did Daisy marry Tom? Even though she was still in love with Gatsby, Daisy most likely married Tom because she knew he could provide her with more material comforts. In Chapter 4 Jordan recounts how, the day before the wedding, she found Daisy drunk, sobbing, and clutching a letter.

Why did Daisy not choose Gatsby? As soon as she realized that Gatsby had not inherited his wealth and had in actuality acquired it illegally, she lost interest in him and remained loyal to Tom, simply because he was made of old money.

Why didn't Daisy go to Gatsby's funeral? Daisy does not want to be seen attending Gatsby's funeral because she does care about her reputation, despite the fact that she has never loved Tom. As a result, she makes the decision to abstain out of concern that she will damage both her connection with Tom and her standing in the eyes of the general public.

What are 3 rumors Nick hears about Gatsby? The main topic of conversation is rumors about Gatsby. Nick hears from various people that Gatsby is a German spy, an Oxford graduate, and someone even claims Gatsby once killed a man.

Did Nick actually like Gatsby? In that novel, Nick loves Gatsby, the erstwhile James Gatz of North Dakota, for his capacity to dream Jay Gatsby into being and for his willingness to risk it all for the love of a beautiful woman. In a queer reading of Gatsby, Nick doesn't just love Gatsby, he's in love with him.

Why did Gatsby choose Nick? Nick's position in relation to the other characters gives him a perfect vantage point from which to tell the story—he is Daisy's cousin, Tom's old college friend, and Gatsby's neighbor, and all three trust and rely on him.

Who told Wilson that Gatsby killed Myrtle? Nick initially refuses to shake Tom's hand but eventually accepts. Tom tells him that he was the one who told Wilson that Gatsby owned the car that killed Myrtle, and describes how greatly he suffered when he had to give up the apartment he kept in the city for his affair.

What does the green light symbolize in The Great Gatsby? The Green Light is significant for several reasons. First, it symbolizes Gatsby's undying love for Daisy as he reaches toward the light on her dock. However, it becomes symbolic of Gatsby's inability to fully reach the American dream as his life unravels.

What does Dan Cody symbolize in The Great Gatsby? Cody is described as having enjoyed his wealth to the utmost, living a life of extravagant leisure. For Gatsby, Cody symbolizes the epitome of wealth and status. He is the very manifestation of the young Gatsby's dreams and ambition, the realization of his own potential and "instinct toward his future glory."

Why did Gatsby not get the money that Cody left for him? When Cody died, he left Gatsby $25,000, but Cody's mistress prevented him from claiming his inheritance. Gatsby then dedicated himself to becoming a wealthy and successful man. Nick sees neither Gatsby nor Daisy for several weeks after their reunion at Nick's house.

What are the essential questions of The Great Gatsby? Essential Questions and Skills: How is Nick "the perfect narrator?" How is this novel a critical commentary of American society? How does Fitzgerald use symbolism and irony in the novel? What are the effects of the symbolism and irony? How does the novel's structure affect the unwinding of the plot?

What are the controversial topics in The Great Gatsby? The Great Gatsby was challenged and banned for a few reasons: sex, violence, adultery, and language. The affair between Daisy and Gatsby along with Nick's language regarding Jordan Baker make up most of the sex and adultery reasoning behind the challenging and banning of the book.

What is the biggest problem in The Great Gatsby? The main conflict in The Great Gatsby is a series of love triangles. As many of the characters involve themselves in extramarital affairs, some of them end up dead while others stay together. In the end, Tom and Daisy, both of whom have been openly unfaithful, are seen walking together still married.

What is the central question in The Great Gatsby? In The Great Gatsby by F. Scott Fitzgerald, the central question would probably reflect around Jay Gatsby's wealth and his dream girl, Daisy. The central question could probably be why does these things matter greatly to himself.
