Can I skip the Rain Wilds Chronicles? you will better understand events with reading Farseer and tawny man, but there are some crossovers in Liveship and Rainwild witch are also relevant to the events. Cj You can definitely skip liveship and rainwilds, although they add such a huge chunk of plot.

Can I read Rain Wild Chronicles first? Jason Russell The cool thing about Hobb's books is they are structured as stand-alone trilogies (exception: Rain Wild Chronicles and its quadrilogy) but if you decide to read them from the beginning and in order, a lot of nuances you would otherwise have missed come into focus.

Are the Rain Wild Chronicles good on Reddit? Certainly, these weren't bad books. They were interesting, with important background and lore expansion, very different characters than in previous books, a more serious outlook on certain issues and overall a more optimistic feel to them. But I definitely liked this series the least, so far.

Should I read the Farseer trilogy before Liveship Traders? I would say that if it's in your mind to read both series, start with Farseer. But I thought this book did better as a stand-alone book than anything else I've read of Hobb's so far. It does, however, pretty thoroughly spoil the major plot points of the Farseer trilogy.
