What is the prayer for ordaining? Ordination Prayer You have commissioned us to be your hands and your feet and your voice in this world so we may announce to all people that Jesus is Lord. That they may serve you with a pure heart and a holy life. That they may preach your word with power. That they may faithfully administer your sacraments.

What makes Baptists different from other Christians? Baptist, member of a group of Protestant Christians who share the basic beliefs of most Protestants but who insist that only believers should be baptized and that it should be done by immersion rather than by the sprinkling or pouring of water. (This view, however, is shared by others who are not Baptists.)

Which religion is closest to Baptist? The Baptist, Methodist, and Lutheran churches are generally considered to be Protestant denominations, although strictly speaking, of these three, only the Lutherans took part in the official Protestation at Speyer after the decree of the Second Diet of Speyer mandated the burning of Luther's works and the end of the ...

What are the two types of Baptist? Two common religious groups are the Baptists and the Southern Baptists. People often see these groups as the same, but they have differences that set them apart. Baptist vs. Southern Baptist churches each have their own backgrounds and religious ideas.

What happens at a Baptist ordination? Ordination is the act of the church by which, in the name of God, it delegates to a qualified person who has responded to the call of God a wide range of ministerial functions and responsibilities.

What do you say at an ordination? All may pray together: Gracious God, we praise you that you have chosen servants in every age to speak your Word and lead your loyal people. We give you thanks for your servant N., and for the ministry to which you have called him/her.

What are the three stages of ordination? Ordination is the sacramental ceremony in which a man becomes a deacon, priest, or bishop and enabled to minister in Christ's name and that of the Church. There are three ordinations in the Sacrament of Holy Orders: diaconate; priesthood; and episcopal.
