"Acts of Faith" follows Iyanla Vanzant's journey as she navigates the depths of grief, despair, and ultimately rediscovers hope and purpose. It is a story of the transformative power of faith and the resilience of the human spirit.

How Acts of Faith Work

Acts of faith are small, intentional actions that express our trust in a higher power or in the possibility of a better future. They can take various forms, such as prayer, meditation, or simply choosing to believe in the goodness of life amidst adversity.

Example of an Act of Faith

An act of faith can be as simple as taking a deep breath and acknowledging that there is hope, even in the face of uncertainty. It is a choice to trust that there is a purpose and meaning behind life, even when we cannot fully understand it.

The Act of Faith in Islam

In Islam, the act of faith is known as "iman." It is one of the five pillars of the religion and refers to the belief in the one God (Allah), His messengers, and the holy
