Whatcha Gonna Do with That Duck and Other Provocations: A Masterclass from Seth Godin

2006, 2012 1st Edition by Seth Godin

Hardcover

What is the essence of "Whatcha Gonna Do with That Duck"?

Seth Godin's "Whatcha Gonna Do with That Duck" is a collection of provocative essays that challenge conventional marketing wisdom and inspire readers to think differently about their businesses. The book's central message is that creativity, authenticity, and a willingness to take risks are essential for success in the modern marketplace.

Why is the title of the book so significant?

The title refers to a story about a marketing executive who receives a rubber duck as a gift from a potential client. The marketer is perplexed about what to do with the duck, but eventually realizes that it is a metaphor for the often absurd and unpredictable nature of business. The message is that instead of trying to fit into existing paradigms, businesses should embrace the unexpected and find creative ways to stand out.

What are some of the key provocations in the book?

Godin challenges traditional beliefs about advertising, branding, and market research. He argues that advertising should be about creating stories and connections, not just selling products. He emphasizes the importance of building authentic relationships with customers and encourages businesses to focus on innovation rather than imitating the competition.

How can readers apply the principles of "Whatcha Gonna Do with That Duck" to their businesses?

Godin's insights can be applied to any type of business. He encourages readers to think creatively, take risks, and focus on creating value for their customers. He also emphasizes the importance of building a strong online presence and engaging with customers through social media and other channels.

What is the overall message of the book?

"Whatcha Gonna Do with That Duck" is a call to action for businesses to challenge the status quo and embrace a mindset of innovation and creativity. Godin believes that businesses have the power to connect with customers on a deeper level and create products and services that truly make a difference in people's lives.
