How many dives do you need for Advanced Open Water Diver? The PADI Advanced Open Water course consists of five dives, which are typically completed over two to three days. Two dives (deep and navigation) are required. The other three dives are up to you and your instructor to decide. These can be done consecutively or spread out at different times and/or locations.

How hard is the Open Water Diver exam? A lot of people worry about the exam, but I can tell you now that the PADI Open Water Exam questions are very easy. Especially if you have a great Dive Instructor, you will have nothing to worry about.

Is advanced diver worth it? If you'd like to improve your skills, become a more confident diver and have new adventures — the PADI Advanced Open Water Diver course is totally worth it! As mentioned above, PADI AOW requires very little studying compared to the Open Water Diver course, and there's no exam.

What is the difference between Open Water Diver and Advanced Open Water Diver? Advanced Open Water Diver is one step up from entry level certification as a beginner autonomous scuba diver. A major difference between Autonomous diver equivalent Open Water Diver (OWD) certification and AOWD is that the depth limit is increased from 18 to 30 metres (60 to 100 ft).

Can I do 4 dives in a day? Generally, the answer is no more than four. On day trips, the usual number of dives is two or three. Liveaboard diving is commonly three day dives and a night dive. Those lucky enough to be staying near a beach reef with good diving normally only do 3-4 dives per day.

How deep can I dive with advanced open water? Improve all areas of your diving skills down to 30 meters (100 feet). If you loved your Open Water Diver course and are eager to learn more and want to dive deeper, consider the PADI Advanced Open Water Diver course. This higher certification level allows you to dive down to 30 meters (100 feet)!

What happens if you fail the PADI exam? If you get less than 75% in one of the five sections you will be allowed to retake that section later in the IE. If you fail in 2 or more sections, or you fail the retake, you will have to attend a later PADI Instructor Exam and repeat all written exams again.

What's the hardest part of scuba diving? Mask Clearing It's a vital skill to be mastered by any new diver as it is quite common for water to enter the mask due to a variety of reasons, be it because of a poorly fitting mask, a stray hair caught under the skirting, a kick from another diver or a broken mask strap – the list is endless!

How long does Padi Advanced Open Water eLearning take? The PADI Advanced Open Water Diver Course online will take approximately 8 hours to complete. Why does the eLearning course only cover knowledge development for these seven dives when there are actually more Adventure Dives to choose from?

How many dives do you need for open water diver? Open Water Dives After your confined water dives, you'll head to open water, where you and your instructor will make four dives, usually over two days. On these dives you'll get to explore the underwater world.

How many dives do you need for open water certification? In order to complete your PADI Open Water Diver certification, you must complete academic training (Aquatic Adventures uses the PADI online Touch program), 5 confined water dives, and 4 open water dives.

What is PADI Advanced Open Water Diver equivalent to?

How many dives do you need to be a master diver? You also need to earn five PADI Specialty Diver certifications and have logged a minimum of 50 dives.
