What happens in Chapter 9 of Great Gatsby? Wilson tells his friend, Michaelis, that Myrtle had been cheating on him. He also says that he knows how to find the man who killed her. Wilson leaves and goes in search of the yellow car and is given directions to Gatsby's. He makes his way there and kills Gatsby before turning the gun on himself.

Why is Gatsby's father so proud of him? Answer and Explanation: Jay Gatsby's father, Henry Gatz, is proud of his son because Gatsby was a self-made man. He was born into poverty, but he did not let his social circumstances keep him from achieving his goals. Gatsby was driven, independent, and savvy to the way the world works.

How did Gatsby's father learn of his death? Gatsby's father learned of the tragedy from the newspaper(s).

Why do Tom and Daisy leave? In the end, Tom and Daisy decide to move away from East Egg and New York in order to escape from their problems. Gatsby becomes infamous as people still believe that he was the one who killed Myrtle.

Did Daisy know Gatsby died? She may not have known that Gatsby was dead. She was driving the car that hit and killed her husband's Tom's mistress, and then let Gatsby take the blame. Her 'love' for him was not love at all—it was a selfish romance. She also had to stay on Tom's good side—he's not too tolerant of people who disobey him.

Why does Daisy end up marrying Tom? Why did Daisy marry Tom? Even though she was still in love with Gatsby, Daisy most likely married Tom because she knew he could provide her with more material comforts.

Who called Gatsby before he died? Gatsby's Death and Funeral In both book and movie, Gatsby is waiting for a phone call from Daisy, but in the film, Nick calls, and Gatsby gets out of the pool when he hears the phone ring. He's then shot, and he dies believing that Daisy was going to ditch Tom and go way with him. None of that happens in the book.

Why did Tom cry over dog biscuits? A dog could also symbolize unconditional love and devotion, a sharp contrast with the Tom/Myrtle pairing. The fact that the dog biscuits triggered emotion in Tom, could suggest that these qualities were missing in his relationship with Daisy, which may be what made him stray outside the marriage.

What does Gatsby's dad give Nick? Henry Gatz is proud of his son and saves a picture of his house. He also fills Nick in on Gatsby's early life, showing him a book in which a young Gatsby had written a schedule for self-improvement. Sick of the East and its empty values, Nick decides to move back to the Midwest.

Who arrives 3 days after Gatsby's death? Three days after the murder of Gatsby, a telegram from his father, 'signed Henry C. Gatz' arrives and, a few days later, Mr. Gatz arrives at the mansion.

Why is Gatsby's funeral ironic? Gatsby's funeral is ironic because only three people attend, while enormous crowds attended his parties. Despite being a popular figure in the social scene, once Gatsby passes, neither Daisy, his business partner Henry Wolfsheim, nor any of his partygoers seem to remember him or care.

What do Jordan and Nick say to each other in chapter 9? She tells him she is engaged to another man, though Nick doesn't really believe her. Then she accuses Nick of being dishonest with her. Nick leaves, feeling angry and sorry. Nick thought his relationship with Jordan was superficial.

Why did Daisy not attend Gatsby's funeral? Daisy did admit her love for Gatsby (in front of Tom no less), but that love didn't mean that she was prepared to devote her life to him. As is the tragedy of the story, Daisy had moved on.

Why did Nick take care of Gatsby's funeral chapter 9? Nick took care of Gatsby's funeral because he was his only close friend and the only person who really cared about him.

Did Daisy actually love Gatsby? Though Gatsby insisted that Daisy never loved Tom, Daisy admitted that she loved both Tom and Gatsby.

Does Daisy get pregnant in The Great Gatsby? Soon after the wedding, Daisy became pregnant, and Tom started to have affairs with other women. Jordan tells Nick that Gatsby has asked to be invited to his house at a time when Daisy is also present.

What does the last line of Gatsby mean? Gatsby did beat on, against huge forces pushing back against him. He built a huge fortune and threw lavish parties. He even fell back in love with Daisy for a time. But after the hope comes resignation. As the novel's final line points out, the current never stops; to push back against it is a hopeless endeavor.

Did Daisy and Gatsby sleep together? Gatsby reveals details of his and Daisy's long ago courtship. He was enthralled by her wealth, her big house, and the idea of men loving her. To be with Daisy, he pretended to be of the same social standing as her. One night, they slept together, and he felt like they were married.

Is Nick in love with Gatsby? This is at the very end of the novel. Of the late Gatsby, Tom says, "That fellow had it coming to him. He threw dust in your eyes just like he did in Daisy's...." And that's why it matters that Nick is gay and in love with Gatsby: because Tom's assessment is spot-on, but Nick will never admit it.

Who is the true love in The Great Gatsby? Their love affair makes Gatsby optimistic that Daisy is his true love, but he really only sees and loves an idealized version of her that he has carried for years. In the end, Daisy chooses to stay with her husband even when knowing he had also had an affair.

Why did Tom break Myrtle's nose? Tom broke Myrtle's nose because Myrtle kept repeating his wife's, Daisy, name. Judging by his treatment of Myrtle and his wife, his attitude seems to be that he views women as beneath him and he treats them with disrespect. He feels empowered that women are with him for his money.

Who found Gatsby's body first? Nick hurries back to West Egg and finds Gatsby floating dead in his pool.

Did Tom know Daisy killed Myrtle? Tom realises that it was Gatsby's car that struck and killed Myrtle. Back at Daisy and Tom's home, Gatsby tells Nick that Daisy was driving the car that killed Myrtle but he will take the blame.

Who assassinated Gatsby? Scott Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby, published in 1925. Jay Gatsby is shot to death in the swimming pool of his mansion by George Wilson, a gas-station owner who believes Gatsby to be the hit-and-run driver who killed his wife, Myrtle.

What happens chapter 9 things fall apart? In Chapter 9 of Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart, Okonkwo and second-wife Ekwefi's daughter, Ezinma, falls ill. Ekwefi's sad history with her past nine children before Ezinma, all of whom died, is recounted.

Where does Nick go at the end of Chapter 9? Nick reconnects briefly with Jordan, who tell him that she is engaged. Nick runs into Tom, who admits telling Wilson that it was Gatsby's car that hit Myrtle. Nick decides to go back to the Midwest.

What was Daisy's reaction to Gatsby's death in Chapter 9? Although Fitzgerald does not place Daisy there at the funeral, there is a lot of evidence that shows she might have wished to be there, and that she felt sorry about Gatsby's death.

Why is the end of Chapter 9 a turning point? Chapter 9 is a turning point in The Kite Runner because it marks the end of the friendship between Amir and Hassan. It also is the end of Amir's memories in Kabul.

What happens in chapter 9 of once? The Nazis have taken Felix and Zelda to a ghetto, where they find that all the children are being taken away from their parents. They meet a strange man with a Jewish arm band where he saves Zelda from being taken away but Zelda refuses to leave without Felix. Felix is sick when they arrived at the Ghetto and faints.

Who did the men think the white men were? The men began discussing rumors about white men. Who did they think the white men were? The polite word for leprosy was "the white skin." The men in the hut thought the white men were lepers.

What happens in chapter 9 of Out of the Dust? Billie Jo assumes his bad mood is because his attic filled up with dust and collapsed, destroying a large portion of his stock. When she gets home, Billie Jo realizes that Mr. Hardy gave her four extra cents in change instead of cheating her like he usually does.

Why is chapter 9 of The Great Gatsby important? Nick's final thoughts suggest that the future will forever remain inaccessible. Gatsby believed that he could shape the future to fit his dreams. But in the end, he fell short of achieving his vision of a happy future with Daisy. The troubles of his past came back to overpower his ability to change his fate.

Who is Gatsby's father in chapter 9? Nick tracks down Gatsby's father, Henry C. Gatz, a solemn old man left helpless and distraught by the death of his son. Gatz shows Nick a book in which the young Gatsby kept a self-improvement schedule; nearly every minute of his day was meticulously planned.

What did Amir put under Hassan's bed? The morning after, Amir waits for Hassan and Ali to leave. He takes his birthday money and a watch that Baba gave him and puts them under Hassan's mattress. When the storm clears, the moonlight lit up the body on the beach. It is the body of Simon, who had come to tell the others that the beast is only a dead man's body.

What chapter is Simon killed in? The Beast. Simon's death in Chapter 9 cannot be fully analyzed without some knowledge of his journey in Chapter 8. Jack and the hunters spike a pig's head on a stick as an offering to 'the beast. ' Simon is alone with the pig's head, nicknamed the 'Lord of the Flies,' and converses with it.
