What is taxable for a pastor? However, pastors are taxed under the SECA system due to the self-employed side of their dual tax status. You pay the entire tax (15.3% of your salary and any provided housing allowance), since under the self-employed classification, you are both the employer and the employee.

Why is theology important for pastors? The apostle Paul says that a pastor “must hold firm to the trustworthy word as taught, so that he may be able to give instruction in sound doctrine and also to rebuke those who contradict it” (Titus 1:9). But you can't do this if you've never learned sound theology yourself! Pastors guard the boundaries.

Why is evangelism important to a pastor? Evangelism at its best is the natural response of believers who love Jesus, but it's also a requirement of Christian obedience. Accountability among church leaders for this task is appropriate. The pastor can teach and emphasize the ordinance of baptism.

What is the most important key to success in ministry? Faithfulness = Success
Pastors who aim for faithfulness will, over time, find they lead the kind of church they always desired.
